

Nima Khosravani, M.D.
BIO

Dr. Nima Khosravani is a board-certified, fellowship-trained general surgeon specializing in minimally invasive, robotic, and bariatric surgery. A Winter Park native, he completed his medical degree at the Florida State University College of Medicine, general surgery residency at the University of Miami/Palm Beach, and fellowship in bariatric and advanced minimally invasive surgery at Baptist South Miami Hospital, a nationally recognized center for minimally invasive and bariatric surgery. He is an active member of the American College of Surgeons and the American Society for Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery, with research published in medical journals and presentations at national and international conferences. With a focus on patient-centered care, he combines advanced surgical technology with a personalized approach to help patients achieve the best outcomes. Outside of surgery, he enjoys saltwater fly fishing, spearfishing, traveling, cooking, and exploring bourbon and wine.
