ABOUT

CULTURAMA

CELEBRATE CULTURE WITH CULTURAMA

Culturama was founded in 2013 with the mission to promote and preserve the wealth of Algerian culture. There was always a need to highlight the uniquely rich Algerian arts & traditions, which have gone underrepresented on the global stage. We are driven by our unending passion for culture and cultural exchanges & regeneration.

Over the years, Culturama has grown from a small community center to a thriving hub of cultural activity, with a wide range of programmes and events that attract visitors from all over the world, focusing on Algerian music and culture.

DzFest is one of our favourite events!

CREATE A COHESIVE COMMUNITY

Culture is essential for avoiding conflicts and for conflict resolution. It is an ideal means of communicating across language barriers, empowering people and facilitating social cohesion,

PROMOTE ARTISTS

Provide a platform for established and emerging artists to showcase their art to UK audiences.

DEVELOP COLLABORATIONS

Collaborate with emerging and leading cultural, educational and social organisations to widen the impact of our offerings and reach wider audiences

CATALYSE CHANGE

Modify the cultural narratives surrounding smaller and ethnic minorities to enact a change in visions, attitudes and help to solve intractable social and economic problems; to raise understanding between people and nations; and to encourage solutions to some of the major international challenges we all face.

PROMOTE ALGERIAN CULTURE

Through our events, we join the effort alongside other artists, individuals and organisation in the promotion of the understated Algerian culture.

WHAT WE DO

ABOUT

DZFEST

The Algerian Festival for Arts & Culture in the UK

The first British-Algerian Festival for Arts & Culture in the UK.

A culmination and a result of continuous efforts by the Algerian diaspora and the Algerian community in the UK to promote and celebrate its culture & heritage. To celebrate the British-Algerian and other hybrid cultures between two identities through the Algerian diaspora. To bring & share the much vibrant & hugely diverse yet unknown Algerian culture to all UK & international Audiences, to promote engagement & raise awareness, but also bring the Algerian communities together at a time where social isolation is increasingly becoming a reality.

2025 will see the third edition of DzFest after a frank success with the previous editions in 2022 and 2024

In this third edition

We will focus on the theme of Sahara, its culture, topography, its appeal and mystic.

This edition is another stepping-stone in an ongoing effort to make this culture ubiquitous and more mainstream.

We wish to celebrate Saharan culture, While the Sahara Desert is the world's largest hot desert, Algeria has a very significant portion of it within its borders. In fact, the Sahara encompasses over 90% of Algeria's total area.

So much of this large area is unknown to even Algerians, rich in culture and boasting some of the best music genres in the world, we will bring a taste of this Algerian culture, showcase films, debates, talks, games, songs, performances and various events around this theme.

A literary discussion on the rise of the North African novel in English, exploring themes such as its historical exclusion from broader African literature, the unique challenges faced by Algerian AND North African authors writing in English within the Anglophone literary world, and related topics.

Benssalah will also delight us with readings from his published work.

An especially timely topic given the growing introduction and promotion of English in Algerian education.

A great evening of debate and questions in a magical venue in the heart of the City of London

Fayssal BENSALAH: Award-winning Algerian author;

He is a short story writer, novelist and academic, holds a PhD in Critical and Creative Writing from Cardiff University. He was educated at Constantine 1 University (CIU) and graduated with an MA degree in Anglophone Literature.

His novel, The Couscous Western, was the runner-up for the 2023 Graywolf African Fiction Prize.

His short story, 'The Last Shot of Ahmed Bey's Cannon' won the inaugural 2020 Toyin Falola Prize, and 'Citizen Sarah' was longlisted for the 2023 Afritondo Short Story Prize.

GAÂDA DIWANE BÉCHAR

RETURN TO THE RICH MIX AFTER 10 YEARS!

Experience the electrifying spirit of Diwane music with Gaâda Diwane Béchar, the legendary ensemble that has brought the mystical sounds of the Algerian Sahara to international stages.

Rooted in centuries-old Gnawa and Sufi traditions, Diwane is a sacred musical rite born from healing ceremonies – fusing hypnotic rhythms, call-and-response chants, and the deep pulse of the Guembri (three-stringed lute).

From the oasis city of Béchar, where Arab, Berber, and Sub-Saharan cultures meet, Gaâda Diwane revitalises this powerful heritage with vibrant energy, bringing ancient trance into dialogue with contemporary sound. Prepare for an unforgettable evening of ancestral grooves, spiritual ecstasy, and the timeless heartbeat of the desert with this rare UK performance.

About Gaâda Diwane Bechar

One of Algeria's most celebrated musical ensembles, known for preserving and revitalising the sacred Diwane tradition – a spiritual musical form rooted in Sub-Saharan African heritage and passed down through generations of Gnawa communities in southern Algeria.

Formed in the city of Béchar in the 1986 by master musician Abdelkader "Baba" Hamida, the group blends traditional percussive instruments like the guembri and krakebs with trance-like rhythms and call-and-response chants that evoke themes of healing, ancestral memory, and communal unity.

Over the past decades, Gaâda Diwane Bechar has brought Diwane to international stages, from Africa to Europe, while remaining deeply rooted in the ritual and communal aspects of the tradition. Their performances are immersive, hypnotic, and profoundly moving – offering audiences not just a concert, but a spiritual and cultural experience.

Their presence at DzFest is both a celebration and an act of cultural preservation, connecting UK audiences with one of Algeria's richest and most soulful musical legacies from the Edge of the Sahara to London.

*Including a special opening act by AMAL [The Algerian Music Association of London]
