times more than anything.”

After working through a lot of uncertainty for months, Michelle was able to re-open the market at a much smaller scale and with many modifications.

“It wasn’t easy, but like many small business owners all over the world, we pushed through. We are happy to report that thanks to the community’s support, we are almost fully recovered,” says Michelle.

“Our gratitude is endless and we consider each day to be a blessing,” she continued. “Kailua has changed a lot over the years, but we somehow manage to fight to preserve things that make it special—like its physical beauty and environment, strong sense of community and residential character.”

Lōkahi Kailua Market is located at 340 Uluniu Street, and is open on Sundays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. To learn more about the Michelle and the market, visit: www.lokahikailuamarket.com.
