We’re excited to help satisfy your commercial equipment needs through Metal Cricket, so please let us know how we’re doing!

Sellers

A. Online Sales

Metal Cricket offers sellers the possibility to utilize the Metal Cricket website to place for sale certain items of commercial equipment, as referenced above. This service is akin to a community message-board or classified advertisement section of a newspaper whereby we provide the hosting space for your items online via the Metal Cricket website, and you provide the descriptions, photos, and other information regarding such items and how they may be purchased. However, we have some rules regarding what types of items may be placed for sale on the Metal Cricket website.

First, if the items that you place for sale on our website violate the intellectual property of any other person or entity and you have not obtained a license or the authority to use that intellectual property, then we will refuse to list those items for sale through our website. You are solely responsible for ensuring you do not violate the intellectual property rights of others and you acknowledge, accept, and agree to hold us harmless in the event any third-party notifies us of any such violation. In the event that you have already placed any of your items for sale on our website, but we subsequently discover that said items violate the intellectual property rights of any other person or entity, then we will immediately remove your items from our website and cancel any pending transactions regarding your items to the extent Metal Cricket is assisting in the facilitation of such transactions. Please note such removal and cancellation does not alleviate your responsibility to tender payment to Metal Cricket any fees you incur by utilizing our website.

Second, we strive to provide visitors and users of our website with ease of accessibility and use, security, and trust, which enables our visitors and users to review items of merchandise and make an informed decision before entering a transaction through our website. To ensure and maintain this confidence in decision-making, we ask that you honestly and accurately represent both yourself and the items of merchandise that you place for sale through our website. In the event we believe there is a discrepancy or inaccuracy between the actual item and your representation of the item, then we will temporarily prevent you from placing the item on our website until we have had the chance to contact you and discuss same. Once any discrepancies or inaccuracies have been corrected, we will then either allow you to place the item for sale on our website or refuse to place the item for sale on our website. In other words, we all think our own stuff is great, but an honest representation of an item will always net you a fair price and a repeat customer, and we want you, as well as our users and visitors, to have the best experience with our website possible.

Third, as a seller utilizing our services and website, you explicitly acknowledge, accept, and agree to the fifteen percent (15%) transaction fee due to Metal Cricket for each transaction processed through our website, exclusive of all associated or other costs, for which you are also responsible. Please note that although we while we may assist in processing your transactions, you are solely responsible for all tax implications on all items sold on your behalf.

This means that you are prohibited from interfering with any business carried on by Metal Cricket or by any other seller, person, or entity utilizing our website; from harassing any visitor, user, or other seller utilizing our website; and from using your status as a seller to negatively impact any service we may provide through our website. These restrictions include delivering unsolicited advertisements or spam mail to visitors, users, or other sellers utilizing our website.

You agree that you will immediately inform Metal Cricket of any cancelled orders or refunds, which are your sole responsibility, but for which Metal Cricket may offer its assistance.

B. Consignment

Metal Cricket further offers sellers the possibility to utilize our services to have Metal Cricket place for sale certain products on behalf of said sellers. Consignment through the Metal Cricket website involves a seller delivering detailed descriptions, photographs, and all associated information related to an item of merchandise to Metal Cricket, which will then review and display said information on the Metal Cricket website for potential users and visitors of the Metal Cricket website to view, inquire about, and potentially purchase, all in exchange for a fee paid to Metal Cricket for same. Usually the consignor (you) sets a price floor below which the consignee (us) is not allowed to sell the item, and the consignee (us) then attempts to sell the item as far beyond the price floor as possible. However, we have some rules regarding what types of items may be placed for sale by utilizing our services.

First, if the items that you ask us to place for sale on our website violate the intellectual property of any other person or entity and you have not obtained a license or the authority to use that intellectual property, then we will refuse to list those items for sale through our website. You are solely responsible for ensuring you do not violate the intellectual property rights of others and you acknowledge, accept, and agree to hold us harmless in the event any third-party notifies us of any such violation. In the event that we have already placed any of your items for sale on our website at your request, but subsequently discover that said items violate the intellectual property rights of any other person or entity, then we will immediately remove your items from our website, cancel any pending transactions regarding your items, and return those items to you and your expense. Please note such removal, cancellation, and return does not alleviate your responsibility to pay us for our services.

Should any item Metal Cricket inspects not be as described, not in excellent and clean condition, or otherwise non-conforming with any information you have previously provided, then Metal Cricket may refuse to place said item for sale through the Metal Cricket website. Should an item of merchandise placed with us for sale prove to be counterfeit, then you acknowledge, understand, and agree that Metal Cricket has the ability to provide all information regarding said item to any governmental agency or authority with jurisdiction over same, whether or not requested by said governmental agency or authority.

Fifth, by consigning your commercial equipment items with Metal Cricket, you are granting Metal Cricket the exclusive right to sell said items on your behalf, and you will not attempt to sell said item through any other method or means unless otherwise agreed to by Metal Cricket in writing.

Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of these Terms of Use does not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of these Terms of Use. If an arbitrator or arbitration tribunal of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision is invalid, the remaining provisions of these Terms of Use are to be construed as if the invalid provision had never been included in these Terms of Use.

No Binding Agreement for Other Transactions. You and Metal Cricket agree that neither you or Metal Cricket will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever with respect to any other transaction by virtue of these Terms of Use, except for the matter specifically agreed to herein. These Terms of Use do not create a joint venture or partnership between you and Metal Cricket.

Entire Agreement. These Terms of Use constitute the entire understanding between you and Metal Cricket and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous understandings and agreements, whether oral or written, between you and Metal Cricket, with respect to the subject matter and provisions contained in these Terms of Use.

Assignment. You may not assign these Terms of Use, or any rights or obligations contemplated or described herein, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Metal Cricket. Any such attempt by you to assign such rights or obligations shall be considered null and void. Metal Cricket reserves the right to assign these Terms of Use to any third-party, including all applicable rights and obligations contemplated and described herein, without notice, penalty, or consent. Subject to the foregoing, these Terms of Use shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of you and Metal Cricket, as well as the successors and permitted assigns of you and Metal Cricket.

Modification for Legal Events. If any arbitrator or arbitration tribunal of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision or any part of any provision set forth in these Terms of Use is unenforceable, the arbitrator or arbitration tribunal has the power to modify the unenforceable provision instead of severing it from these Terms of Use entirely. The modification may be made by rewriting the offending provision, by deleting all or a portion of the offending provision, by adding additional language to these Terms of Use, or by making other modifications as it determines necessary to fulfill the intent of said provision and these Terms of Use to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. You and Metal Cricket agree that these Terms of Use as so modified shall be binding upon and enforceable against both you and Metal Cricket.
