Nomination for Excellence in Nursing Award 2020

The recipient of the Excellence in Nursing award is a nurse who has been involved in the specialty of Rehab for 2 years or more. He or she shows uncommon drive and passion to ensure the best care for their patients. This person is a leader on the floor, someone to turn to for sound advice, and the best preceptor on the unit. This person does what needs to be done without concern for recognition. But still, its nice to see people have noticed. If you know a nurse who fits this description, you may mail or email this completed document to:
