Nomination for Rising Star 2019

The recipient of the Rising Star award is a nurse who has been involved in the specialty of Rehab for 2 years or less. He or she shows uncommon drive and passion to ensure the best care for their patients. This person may not be CRRN certified or even a member of ARN/WARN yet but their commitment to excellence shows they have what it takes and they should be recognized for their strong start and encouraged to continue forward. If you know a nurse who fits this description, you may mail or email this completed document to:
