

Summer Reading for Students Entering Kindergarten

This summer we would like all students entering Kindergarten in the Fall to read One-osaurus, Two-osaurus by Kim Norman. This is a counting book about dinosaurs. Please read the book with your child this summer and practice counting 1-10. We will do some fun activities with this story when we return to school in September. Have fun reading this summer!

