Introduction

Spain is undoubtedly one of Europe's premier football / soccer destinations; its successful and distinctive football style which has made Spain both European and World Champions in recent years, coupled with frequent Champions League and Europa League winners is proof of their philosophy and methodology.

Combine this with the year-round outstanding weather in Southern Spain and you have the components for a unique and truly memorable football / soccer experience. Learn and experience the Spanish methods of training and play at exceptional sports complexes, including, when appropriate, the facilities of top La Liga teams. Over the last ten years we have facilitated touring teams from England, Israel, France, Portugal, Denmark, Scotland, Morocco and Gibraltar. All have visited Spain to learn and enjoy a Spanish football experience. Andalusia remains the top destination for many major football clubs from around the world who select Southern Spain for its sporting facilities as well as for its climate and first class hospitality.

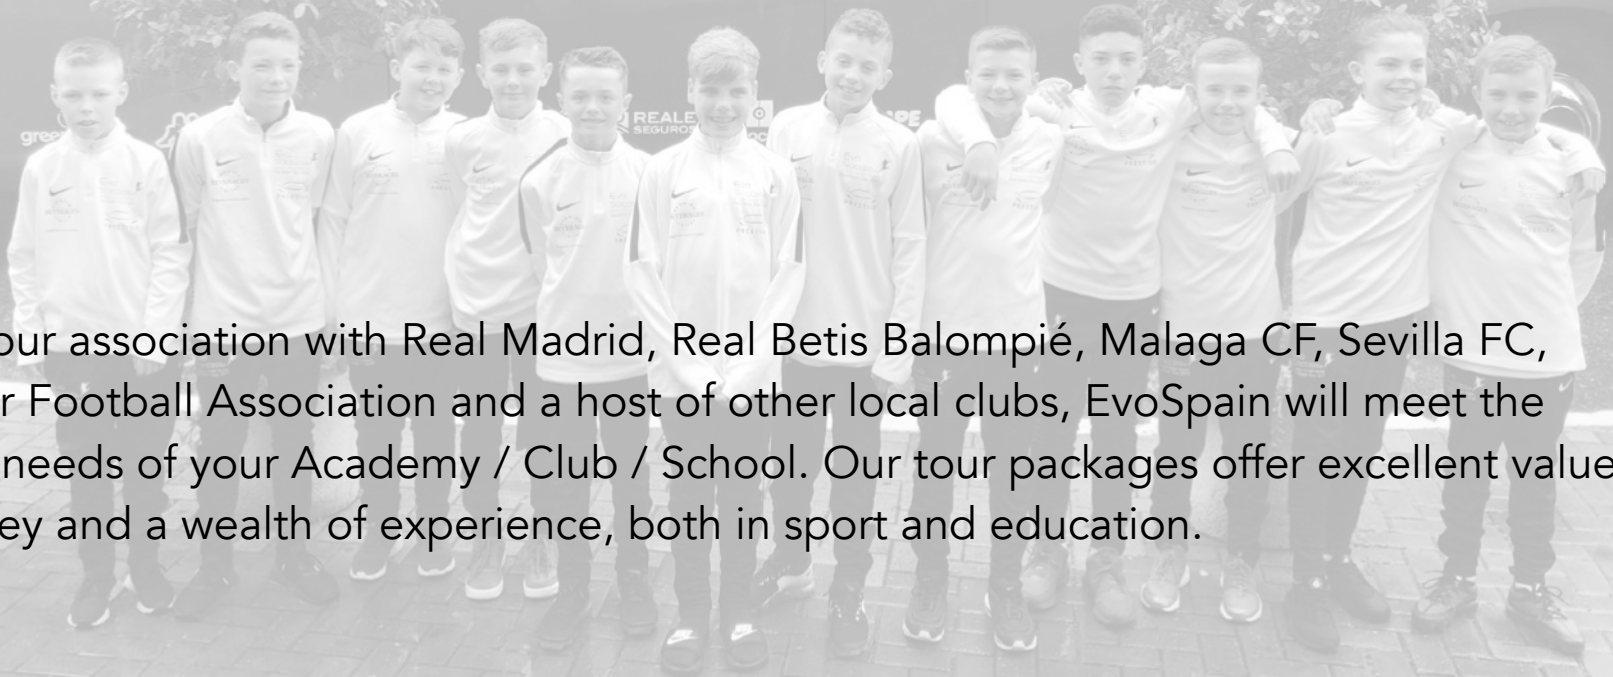

Introduction

EvoSpain create tailor-made football / soccer tours for different ages and abilities. All our services are available for both male or female teams with unique access to specific Women's coaches that have coached club and senior national women's teams.

As well as training with qualified Spanish coaches, we will arrange fixtures against local opposition of an appropriate level to the visiting team. Our dedicated tour managers will take care of all logistics and administration of organising a football / soccer tour, allowing coaches, athletes and parents to fully enjoy their experience.

Due to our association with Real Madrid, Real Betis Balompié, Malaga CF, Sevilla FC, Gibraltar Football Association and a host of other local clubs, EvoSpain will meet the specific needs of your Academy / Club / School. Our tour packages offer excellent value for money and a wealth of experience, both in sport and education.

Who are EvoSpain?

EvoSpain has over a decade of experience organising sports tours in Southern Spain. Being based in the Sotogrande region gives us unparalleled geographical advantage when organising tours and allows us the unique ability to offer bespoke products in Andalusía and other areas of Spain. Specifically designed for international Academies / Clubs / Schools.

Location - Spain

Southern Spain is one of Europe's main tourist destinations for international visitors. Andalusía offers great city locations such as Seville, Malaga and Granada, all with top La Liga teams, as well as the Costa del Sol and Costa de la Luz. Malaga, Seville and Costa del Sol are served from all major international airports, allowing easy access and convenience for visiting teams.

We also deliver tours to the capital Madrid, again with exceptional international transport links.

Our Accommodation

We offer first class hotels with nearby training facilities, many of our hotels have training pitches on site, as well as many other facilities to ensure a great stay. Our partner hotels are all 3-4 star rated and depending on requirements, we advise teams on the best options. Our facilities are specifically chosen with the needs of players, coaches and parents in mind.

Our Accommodation

We have partnered with high standard, quality resorts, in great locations with many amenities suitable for touring football / soccer teams.

We believe that choosing the right accommodation is essential to provide a great experience for the group.

Our resorts are located in safe areas, close to training facilities and to local amenities. We offer different options depending on your group size, budget and time of year.

Rooms are usually based on 2 people sharing and group leaders can choose from single or twin rooms, always located on the same floor and adjacent to your groups rooms to ensure a safe environment.

Options to include full-board / half-board depending on your schedule, with the further possibilities at some resorts of taking your meals as a packed lunch or dinning at training grounds where available.

Our Training Facilities

EvoSpain have partnered with the very best training facilities with top quality football venues and exceptional training environments. Our venues have FIFA sized natural grass or 3G/4G Astroturf pitches, equipped with first-class services to fulfil each team's requirements.

Bespoke Packages

Every EvoTour is unique, all packages are tailored according to your Academy / Club / School requirements; whether your team is professional, semi-professional, amateur, grassroots, male or female.

Dedicated Staff

Our tour representatives, who are all bilingual, will pick up your group from the airport and be on duty 24 hours a day throughout the duration of your tour, staying in close contact with the group manager and providing updates on the team's agenda. Our local knowledge of the destination is exceptional, providing a complete personal service at all times.

Our staff also include Pro-License Spanish coaches, supported by bilingual assistants who could assess the level of any visiting teams so that you are matched against a similar standard of opposition within your fixtures or tournaments.

Strategic Relationships & Partners

Strategic Relationships & Partners

With the collaboration of professional football clubs and soccer schools in the area, EvoSpain will provide coaching programmes to suit your needs. Having access to leading football institutions, your team will experience football in a professional environment.

Depending on your tour requirements, Academies / Schools / Clubs will have the option of choosing bespoke packages. From friendly fixtures, to small tournaments, professional team training / soccer school programmes, your players will experience the life of a professional athlete.

Testimonials

EvoSpain have achieved an exceptional reputation that is highly recommended by our visiting teams and organisations.

"EvoSoccer Spain have organised three tours for us and each one of them has been a tremendous success. Their attention to detail is first class and they deliver exactly what has been requested."

Neil Harvey, Head Of Football - Wellington College (Berkshire)

"We have visited Spain on seven consecutive years and every year the service and games could not be bettered."

Shalom Liav, Football Director – Misgav (Israel)

"The whole tour was of the highest order, Thank you for all the memories."

Terry Cummins, Milnthorpe and District Junior Football Club

"EvoSpain organised a great experience and development opportunity for the players. Facilities were first class."

George Gudgeon, Head of Youth Development, CDS Football Development Centre (Cumbria)

"We have worked with EvoSpain for the last three years organising player exchanges, each one better than the last. The girls had a great experience and development opportunity, making friends and memories for a lifetime. The facilities were top notch, second to none!"

Robert Fifield, President, Lions Utd Academy Team, South Shore Soccer Club (NY, USA)
