

Train up a child the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

Mission

Faithful Grounds Christian Academy has been called to lead children develop a true love and relationship with Jesus Christ. We are committed in providing a biblically based, creative fun, loving, academic environment that will encourage your children grow spiritually, emotionally, socially, physically, and academically through hands-on, individual, and group learning experiences. We provide small teacher to student ratio to accommodate each student's learning style and ability while encouraging them to become creative and innovative thinkers. We are dedicated to build Christ centered individuals while developing their God given talents, gifts and skills. We are called to train the next generation leaders to walk in truth, holiness, obedience and love while serving the kingdom of God and glorifying our father in all they do.
