

Hospital Force Feeding Systems – Product Specification Sheet

Hospital-grade assisted oral and enteral feeding solutions designed for controlled delivery of liquid nutrition and supplements. Intended exclusively for use by licensed healthcare professionals in institutional environments.

Regulatory Classification

FDA Regulation: 21 CFR 876.5980

Device Class: Class II (Special Controls)

Product Code: PNR

Compliance: ISO 80369-3 (Enteral Small-Bore Connectors, when applicable)

Product Specifications

Attribute	Specification
Material	Medical-grade polypropylene, latex-free, BPA-free
Sterility	Sterile single-use and non-sterile reusable options
Capacities	1 ml, 3 ml, 6 ml, 10 ml, 20 ml, 35 ml, 60 ml
Tip Types	Oral tip, catheter tip, ENFit-compatible
Use Type	Enteral / Oral use only
Markings	High-contrast graduated volume scale
Packaging	Individual sterile packs or bulk hospital cartons
Traceability	Lot-coded for recall and compliance

Intended Hospital Departments

ICU • Med-Surg • Geriatrics • Long-Term Care • Rehabilitation • Specialty Units

Important Clinical Notice

Force feeding carries inherent medical risks if performed incorrectly. These devices are intended for professional healthcare environments only and must be used strictly according to physician orders and institutional protocols.