Community Outreach Committee

The Community Outreach Committee actively connects the Northern Illinois Republican Women with the broader community by promoting civic engagement, building strategic partnerships, and expanding the organization's presence throughout Northern Illinois. Through outreach events, educational initiatives, and volunteer involvement, the committee amplifies conservative values, increases visibility, and helps grow membership while strengthening meaningful community relationships.

Community Speakers Committee - Ida Velasco and Carolyn Wells

The Community Speakers Committee identifies, recruits, and coordinates dynamic speakers who inform, inspire, and engage members of the Northern Illinois Republican Women. The committee curates programs featuring elected officials, candidates, policy experts, and community leaders to foster informed discussion, promote conservative principles, and deliver timely, relevant content at meetings and events.

Events Committee – Debi Keinz and Carolyn Wells

The Events Committee organizes and delivers engaging meetings and special programs that foster fellowship, promote conservative principles, and support the mission of the Northern Illinois Republican Women.

Fundraising Committee – Bob Trojan and Timothy Simms

The Fundraising Committee plans and leads initiatives that generate financial support for the organization's programs, events, and outreach while advancing the mission of the Northern Illinois Republican Women.
