MEET YOUR FACILITATORS

LORI WIETERS, Ph.D., has been a friend of ATHENA Valley of the Sun for many years. Dr. Wieters, Kaleigh Williams, and Kristine Quade lead the Illuminate, the Leadership Program for Business Owners and Executives. Dr. Wieters is a successful Industrial Psychologist who lives in Glendale, Arizona. She has owned Purposeful Leadership Consulting since 2003 and has been a partner in the Wi2 Co-Lab since 2018, a business co-laboratory in north Phoenix. Dr. Wieters can be found working with organizational leaders to pursue business excellence during the day, coaching executives striving to make a difference, and teaching in Grand Canyon University's (GCU) doctoral program in the evening.

KALEIGH WILLIAMS has been a friend of Athena Valley of the Sun (VOS) for many years. She is the Executive Director for the AthenaAZ Foundation and certified facilitator for the ATHENA International Becoming ATHENA program and the AthenaVOS orientation and leadership programs. Kaleigh owns Hi Energy Consulting, where she specializes in bringing order to small and medium-sized enterprises. She has owned her consulting company since 2016 and has been a partner in the Wi2 Co-Lab since 2018, a business co-laboratory in north Phoenix. Kaleigh can also be found teaching yoga classes at her Grounded Goddess Healing Center and attending school to become a doctor of Acupuncture and Chinese Herbology.

MINDY MAGGIO has been living the principles and values of the Athena Valley of the Sun throughout her career as a leader, coach, and consultant. In 2020, she extended the consulting business she started in 2014 by launching the Bridge-Ville Networking & Coaching Community. She creates a space for women leaders to connect, collaborate and come together in a community. Her sweet spot is helping people bridge the gap from where they are today to their higher potential through conscious living and leadership. She provides inspiration and confidence through 1:1 woman-centered leader coaching and consulting and works with entrepreneurs and visionary leaders to amplify and execute their ideas. Her energy and enthusiasm inspire others to contribute to the world positively and bring clarity into action.

BREANNA NAEGELI, Ph.D. is the Dean of the Honors College and received her Doctorate in Performance Psychology from GCU. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Bethany College, Master of Arts in Sport and Exercise Psychology from Argosy University and Master of Science in Leadership from GCU. Dr. Naegeli also supports the university's traditional study abroad and short-term global studies programs, is the editor-in-chief for the Canyon Journal of Undergraduate Research, is the university's chapter sponsor for the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and the Alpha Chi National College Honors Society. Her research interests include people development, leadership and professional development, team dynamics, peak performance and resilience strategies.

KENDALL SMITH received her Bachelor of Arts in Digital Film and Bachelor of Arts in Dance from Grand Canyon University. She is currently pursuing her Masters of Business Administration with an Emphasis in Marketing. As a Program Coordinator for the Honors College, Kendall executes the marketing, graphic design, social media, photo, and video projects for the college. On the side, Kendall performs annually in Dream City Church's Celebration of Christmas show, films weddings and dance recitals, and photographs engagement, maternity, family, and graduation shoots. With the Christian faith as the pinnacle of her being, Kendall commits herself to following Jesus with a faithful heart. She lives by the statement "find a need and fill it," for she believes no task is too small to bring glory to God.
