

All Saints' Day, observed on November 1st, is a Christian holiday honoring all known and unknown saints who have attained eternal life. It's a time to reflect on the lives of those who have lived virtuous lives and inspire others in their faith. The day encourages a sense of community between the living and the departed, recognizing the deep connection between the Church and all who have come before.

The Lord's Prayer

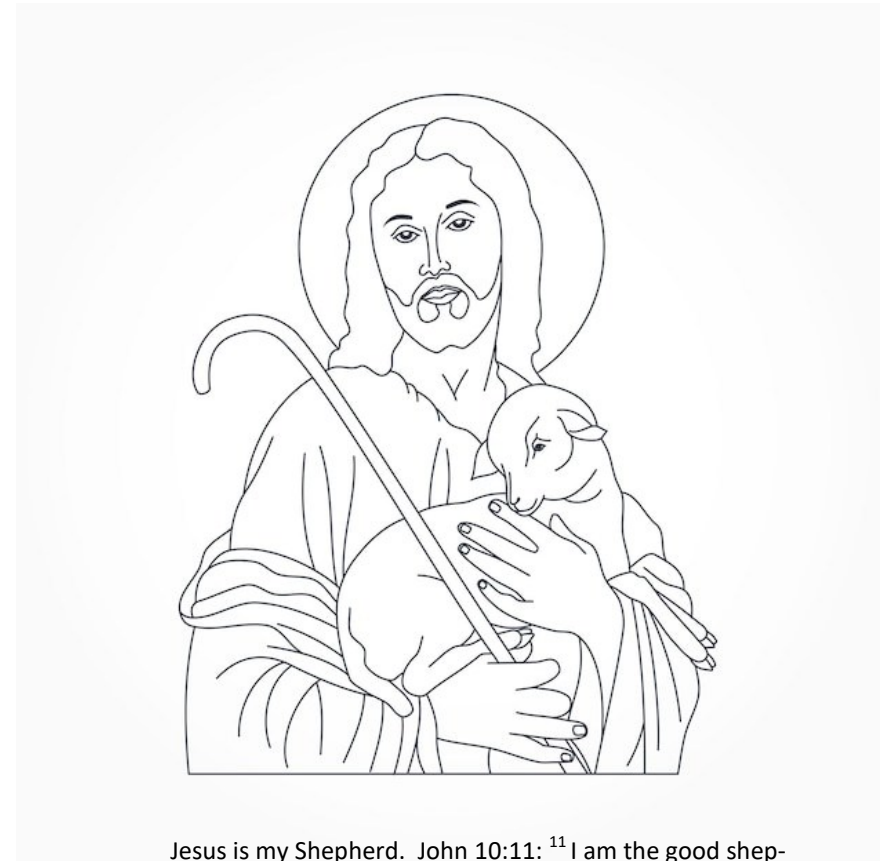

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

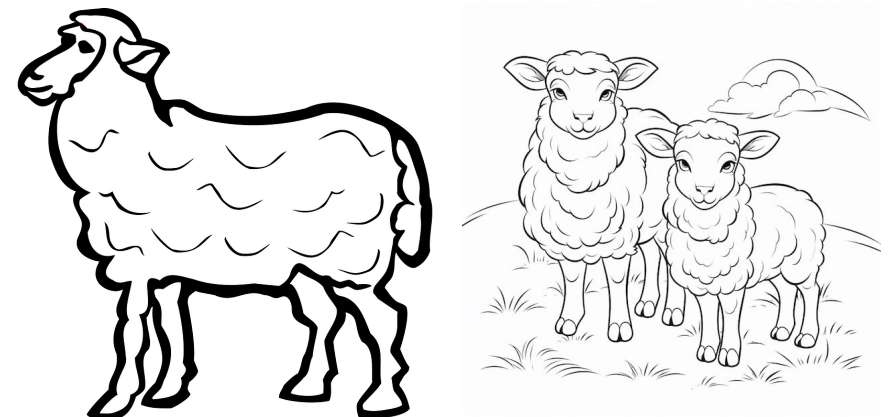

St. Paul, originally known as Saul, was a key figure in early Christianity. He transitioned from a Jewish Pharisee who persecuted Christians to a major missionary and theologian who spread the Gospel. His conversion experience involved a vision of Jesus, after which he became known as Paul and dedicated his life to spreading Christianity. He wrote several books in the New Testament, known as the Pauline Epistles, which have significantly influenced Christian theology.

St. Aristobulus, a Jewish Cypriot and one of the Seventy Disciples sent out by Jesus, is considered the first bishop of Britain. Ordained by the Apostle Paul, he was sent to Britain to spread the Gospel. He is also believed to have been the brother of the Apostle Barnabas. Some traditions suggest he died a martyr's death in Wales, while others indicate he died peacefully among the church he founded.

Jesus is my Shepherd. John 10:11: ¹¹I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

God Created the heavens, the world, the sky, the oceans, the land and all the creatures contained in the sky, the oceans, and the land.

Genesis 1:1— In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

St. Clare of Assisi was a prominent figure in the early Franciscan order, known for her devotion to prayer, poverty, and her work with the Order of Poor Ladies (Poor Clares). She was inspired by St. Francis of Assisi, and after his death, she continued his work and broadened her own influence. Her feast day is celebrated on August 11th.

Saint Brigid

of Ireland

St. Bridget, or Brigid, was a revered Irish saint, particularly known for her charity and founding a monastery in Kildare. She is also recognized as a patron saint of Ireland and is celebrated for her dedication to religious life and her strong connection to the Celtic tradition. Her feast day is February 1st.

God speaks to Abraham that he will bless and his descendants will number like the stars in the sky. Genesis 22:17a—That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven,

Noah is commanded by God to build an ark and bring two of each animal. Genesis 6:19-21—¹⁹ And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female. ²⁰ Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive. ²¹ And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

St. Francis of Assisi

St. Francis of Assisi was an Italian saint and mystic who renounced his wealthy lifestyle to live a life of poverty and faith. He founded the Franciscan Order, a group of friars who followed his example, and is known for his deep love of nature, his compassion for the poor, and his profound devotion to Christ. He is also the patron saint of animals and the environment.

St. Patrick, born in Roman Britain, was a 5th-century missionary and the patron saint of Ireland. He is best known for his role in bringing Christianity to Ireland and is celebrated annually on March 17th according to Britannica. His life story, including his time as a slave in Ireland and his later missionary work, is a significant part of Irish folklore and cultural identity.

God caused a great fish to swallow Jonah because he disobeyed him. Jonah 1:17-2:1—¹⁷ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. 2 Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

God made Deborah both a Judge and Prophetess over his people the Israelites. Deborah led the army into war against the Canaanites and she prevailed. Judges 4:4-7—⁴ And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. ⁵ And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. ⁶ And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedeshnaphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? ⁷ And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

St. Joseph the step father of Jesus

Matthew 1:18-20—¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. ¹⁹ Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. ²⁰ But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

Exodus 6:6-7a—
⁶ Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you
out of their bondage,
and I will redeem you
with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: ⁷ And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am
the LORD your God,
which bringeth you out
from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

God saves Daniel from the Lions in the dungeon.

Daniel 6:16, 6:21-22—¹⁶ So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!" ²¹ Daniel answered, "May the king live forever! ²² My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, Your Majesty."

Sacraments of the Anglican Church

What is a Holy Sacrament?

- A Holy Sacrament is an outward visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace. In the Anglican Church, there are seven Holy Sacraments, but two necessary for salvation: Baptism and Eucharist.
 - Why are Baptism and the Eucharist the only Holy Sacraments necessary for salvation in the Anglican Church?
 - These are the only two sacraments commanded by Christ and necessary for salvation.

What is the outward visible sign and inward and spiritual grace of Baptism?

- The outward sign of Baptism is the water which the person is baptized with, and the inward spiritual grace is the union of the person with Christ in his death and resurrection and his membership into God's family.

What is the outward visible sign and inward and spiritual grace of the Eucharist?

- The outward sign of the Eucharist is the bread and wine given and received according to Jesus' command, and the inward spiritual grace is the Body and Blood of Christ given and received in faith.

What are the additional sacraments?

- There are: Confirmation, Marriage, Ordination, Confession and Absolution, and Unction (Praying for the Sick or Dying).
 - These additional five sacraments honor God's grace and significant milestones in the Christians' life.

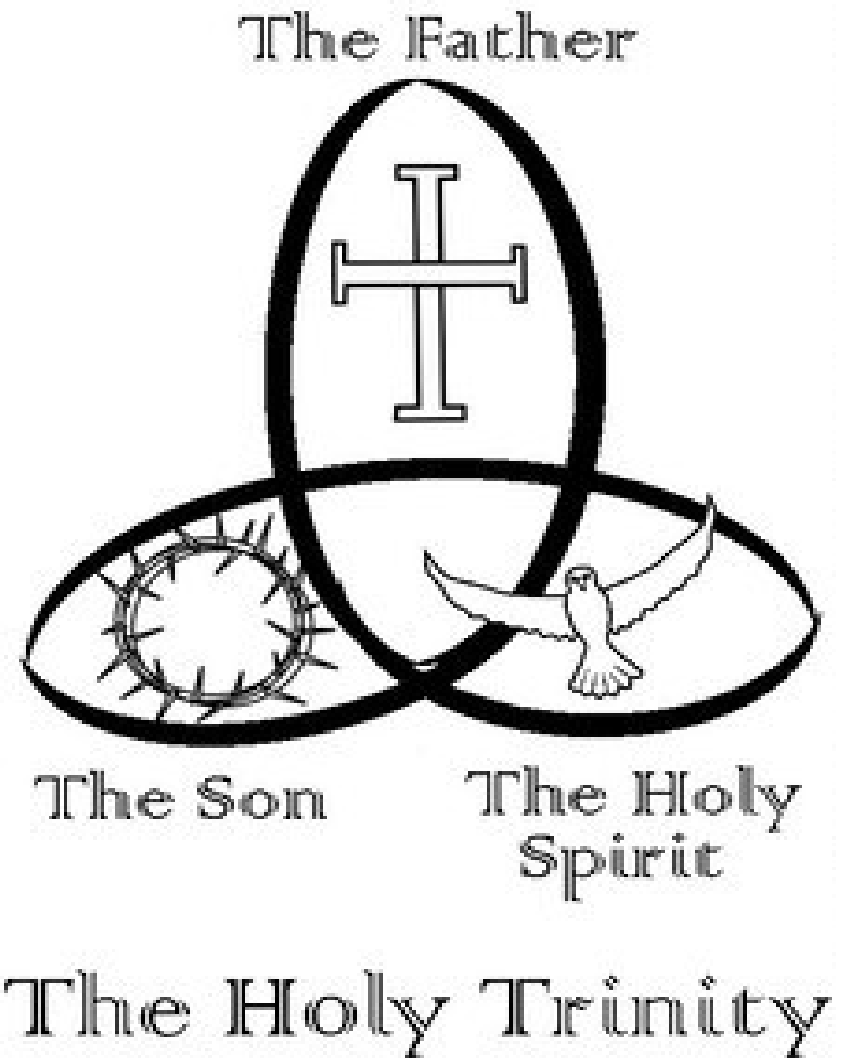

The Angel Gabriel visits Mary and tells her she will have a son who will be the savior of the world.

Luke 1:26-28— ²⁶ And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, ²⁷ To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸ And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
