Letter from the Bishop:

Dear parish family:

We had a glorious Pentecost. The Holy Spirit was truly present among us.

Ariel received the Sacrament of Confirmation, she did splendidly. I am confident that she will be a powerful witness for the Lord. She will show the love of Jesus in her life. We keep her in our prayers as we wish her every good gift of God.

On that same day we welcomed Chuck Cole and his wife Janet into our parish family. We look forward to getting to know them better as they become involved in the life of our Church.

We congratulate Refugio Martinez, who graduated from high school on Saturday May 19th. We are all proud of him. We pray for him as he prepares for college and the next chapter of his life. Refugio is a wonderful young man and I know he has a very promising future.

June brings us into summer and hurricane season. Let us pray God's blessings and protection.

We also pray for those who are traveling during these weeks and months. And we remember that God doesn't take vacation.

I pray for all of you and ask that all of us will be more aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and that we will live accordingly.

Prayers and blessings.

Love:

Bishop John.
