Letter from the Bishop:

Dear Parish Family:

The goodness and mercy of our Blessed Lord is with us all our days. It is His will that all people be saved. Of course, in our stubbornness and self-centeredness we can frustrate His will for us. Let's pray that the Holy Spirit will give us the gift of wisdom that we may discern God's Holy will and the gift of strength so that we might carry it out and live according to His will.

Early this week one of my brothers died. He was 55. His death was sudden and unexpected. I ask your prayers for the repose of his soul. I am confident that he is with the Lord. I ask your prayers also for his 3 adult children who mourn his loss.

The years pass by oh so quickly, it behooves us to spend time with the Lord and to live at peace with all people, for we know neither the day nor the hour when our Lord will beckon us home.

Live each day with the enthusiasm of youth and the fervor and wisdom of age.

May the good lord bless you and your families now and always.

Bishop John
