Letter from the Bishop:

Dear Parish family:

I am excited about the New Year. 2019 will be a great year for our parish. Already we have added new couples to our membership. People who feel welcomed and at home in our parish family.

I encourage everyone to invite family, friends and neighbors to visit us and celebrate the love of Christ our Lord with us.

Forthcoming celebrations will be a lot of fun. We have the only authentic St. Patrick's dinner in the county. Cooked by an Irish chef. Flown in from County Cork Ireland. It was a while ago, but he is still here and still cooking the greatest corned beef and cabbage dinner this side of the Atlantic Ocean. Get your tickets. Sell tickets to your friends and families. Bring your own alcoholic beverage. Let's have fun on Saturday March 16th.

There are so many wonderful things in the planning this year. Stay tuned to this newsletter and be informed.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you.

Love, prayers and Blessings;

Bishop John Vaughan
