

Take Home Sheet: Saint Mark

Today in Sunday School we learned about Saint Mark. Saint Mark was the writer of the Gospel of St. Mark and was an important part of the early Christian church. He was one of the 70 disciples who with the 12 disciples and Paul spread the gospel of Jesus Christ through out the world. Mark was the cousin of Barnabas and was with Paul on his first journey to Antioch. He traveled to Alexandria, Egypt where he was the Bishop for nearly 20 years before he was martyred. His feast day is April 25th.
