Jesus loved to tell stories that helped people understand God's Word. One day, He shared a story about a farmer who went out to plant seeds.

MATTHEW 13:1-3

As he was scattering the seeds, some fell on the path, and the birds ate them.

MATTHEW 13:4

Some seeds fell on rocky ground and grew quickly, but dried up when the sun came because they had no roots.

MATTHEW 13:5-6

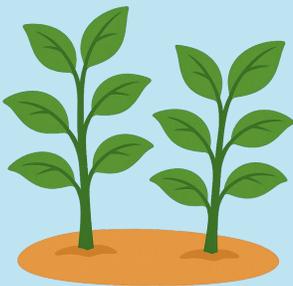

Some seeds fell among thorns, and the plants were choked.

MATTHEW 13:7

Some seeds fell on good soil and grew into strong plants that made lots of fruit - a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown.

MATTHEW 13:8

Jesus said that the seeds that fell on the path are people who hear God's Word but don't understand it; the seeds that fell on rocky ground are people who receive God's Word with joy but give up when life gets hard; the seeds that fell among thorns are people who hear God's Word but let worries and other desires get in the way; and the seeds that fell on good soil are the people who hear God's Word, understand it, and let it grow in their hearts.
