Dear Parish Family:

As you know I am planning to move to Ireland in the coming weeks. I will make one visit to St. Patrick's Church before I leave to do Confirmations.

The residence of the President of Ireland, the Presidents mansion, has a perpetual light in a top window, it's meant to indicate the light to welcome returning immigrants. A guiding light of welcome. I will be pleased to see that light upon my return. I think that it would be a good idea for all the Churches of our Diocese to have a perpetual light in a prominent window to indicate our desire to guide and welcome those who have immigrated from our Congregations. Welcome back those who have left and those who are lost or have strayed from the Lord, and to guide and welcome those who are unchurched. A light that would also be a reminder to us that we are called to guide people to Christ and to be the light of Christ in the world.

I look forward to spending time with my family in Ireland. It has been many years since I lived in Ireland. I have been here in Florida since 1985, I have made many friends here and I have truly loved serving in the various Parishes to which I was called. I first came to Florida on an internship in 1982, as a seminarian, and I still have friends to this day from then. It is my prayer that I have touched the hearts of people in my ministry. I pray that I will continue to be guided by the Holy Spirit and bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to those whom God puts in my path.

As I take my leave of you, I thank you all for your prayers, your support of me these past 12 years. I praise God for the wonderful work that you all have done to sustain the Parish. You are all a great Blessing. I know that you will support the Clergy who continue to minister here at St. Patrick's. I know that Fr. Mike will be a dedicated leader and that Fr. Tim and Fr. Chet will follow his lead as they have mine. And they will be a very effective team and they will serve you well. I know that you will love them and they will love you.

God is now, has always been and always will be in the midst of the Parish. He will strengthen all of you and will grow you in love for Him and for one another. I will continue to be Bishop of the Diocese, so by the Grace of the Lord you will see me from time to time as I make my Episcopal visits.

God bless you now and always. He loves you and I love you.

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ remain with you always, in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Bishop John Vaughan.
