Father Michael's Musings for September

Last week was the one-year anniversary of our family's move to Florida and our engagement with St. Patrick's. I am glad to say that I rarely open announcements by welcoming people to St. Stephen's anymore, so I am making progress toward my integration to the St. Patrick's family. In truth, my reflections upon the last year are primarily appreciation for the kindness and the generosity you have shown to my family. From painting and repairing the playground so the grandkids would have a safe and attractive place to play, to meals we have shared at various functions, and the growth that we have seen in our parish, our family couldn't be happier that we have become a part of your parish family.

Certainly, it has been a memorable year for other reasons. The Covid situation threatens parish life in churches all across America, and yet our parish has grown, our giving has increased, we have made improvements on the building and grounds. I am very proud of the progress we have all made during trying times. We also had our share of departures. The Bishop and Johnnie are now settled in Ireland. Some of our members have found other parish homes. Others have gone on to their reward in heaven. We miss them all, and we will keep them in our prayers.

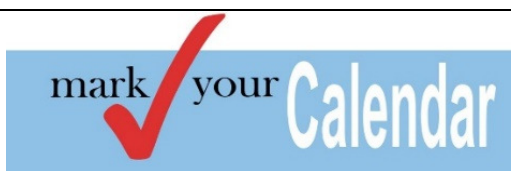

We have made progress toward unity this year. The ACA, as one of the four largest Anglican jurisdictions, has shared Synods and established sacramental unity with many of our brothers. We are blessed that Father Tim and Heidi are now regulars. We have had wonderful visits from Fr. Jacobs and Fr. Hawtin. Father John and Mimi have also visited often. Our services have been shared through the Internet with Melody, with Michael and Eileen, and with Abigail when she unable to attend. We have helped our brothers and sisters in Mississippi at St. Barnabas when Father David had Covid by sharing our services virtually, and we have been joined by friends in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland and Texas through the streaming services.

I look forward to the year to come. As we come out of our isolation and rejoin the community. We will share English tea, Irish corned beef, and wonderful memories as Covid fears wane and we can embrace each other in fellowship once again. I thank you for your patience and your kindness. Now that we are part of the neighborhood, we intend to be present more often and to grow together with you, within the parish and into our community.

God Bless you all
