include enrolled Tribal Members that participate in out-patient residency, or sober living facilities and eligibility will be evaluated on a case by case basis.

(c) The enrolled Tribal Member shall provide written documentation from an authorized agent, i.e., Counselor, Social Worker, and submit proof to the Tribal Council.

Section 6. Deceased Tribal Member:

(a) If an enrolled Tribal Member passes away prior to the distribution, the deceased person's IGRSTF allocation will be paid to the mortuary for funeral expenses if any balance remains. This payment may not be made directly to a family member(s).

Section 7. Appeal Process:

(a) If status is changed from eligible to ineligible a letter will be sent informing the Tribal Member of the reason why and how to appeal the decision.

(b) All distribution appeals shall be heard by the Big Pine Tribal Council at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The appeal must be in writing and submitted to the Big Pine Tribal Office no later than ten (10) days after the distribution. The Tribal Member may be present or call in their case and evidence to the Big Pine Tribal Council.

(c) If false information is submitted and proven or verified by Tribal Council, this may be grounds for denial of IGRSTF to the person appealing and/or person's who submitted the false information on behalf of the person appealing.

(d) The Big Pine Tribal Council shall make a determination if the Tribal Member should or should not receive the distribution. The Big Pine Tribal Council shall forward a written response to the decision of the Tribal Member within ten (10) business days following the appeal.

(e) All decisions of the Tribal Council are final with no further appeal.

Section 8. Other:

(a) The Bad Debt Policy currently in place allows the Big Pine Paiute Tribe to deduct any and all debts owed on behalf of the Tribe, this includes the IGRSTF distribution or other funds received through the Big Pine Tribe.

(b) This IGRSTF policy may be amended by recommendation from the Tribal Council to the General Council. This will include General Council review and comment at the next regular scheduled General Council meeting.
