An Ozmorian Cosmic
Conscious Vision

Entry Title

The Apple in the Seed

Brief description

The Apple in the Seed holds the blueprint of a sacred paradigm that will pervade the minds of the human species. Its suggest how we may lay a path to perfection and live in heavenly bliss. . . Every man, woman, and child. A Brilliant World is an ideal place to begin, but how?

The problem

Abject Apathy, and Deep Cultural Malaise

widespread apathy among the voters indifference, lack of interest, lack of enthusiasm, lack of concern, unconcern, uninterestedness, unresponsiveness, impassivity, dispassion, lethargy, languor, ennui; rare acedia.

malaise

he showed no sign of emerging from his grief and malaise unhappiness, uneasiness, unease, discomfort, melancholy, depression, despondency, dejection, angst, ennui; lassitude, listlessness, languor, weariness; indisposition, ailment, infirmity, illness, sickness, disease. antonym comfort, well-being.

In the beginning there was nothing but a vacuous void. . . and then there was light. In this moment of NOW the world is beginning to appear dark and bleak as energy becomes scarce even though the sun still shined and the rivers flowed. The wee people of The Land of Wee have the power, but of this they are not aware. How do we bring the light into consciousness?

We need a new bible — a Cyber Bible for the coming age of Enlightenment.

The solution

Educate them with Entertainment — The Game of Creation

Tell them a story — Make it real

Start before the beginning — Celebrate the Coming of the End of this Millennium.

Model the Ideal — as we discover it, through targeting the most disenfranchised as the beneficiaries of our efforts (those born after 1980, and the unborn of tomorrow) — The Millennial Children. We guide them so they can lead us. Edutainment — Enjoyable learning and teaching platforms that create their Future World Society — A Brilliant World Creation

Bring to fruition a People-Built Paradise — We, the people shall build it; not abdicate our power to corporations, centralized governments or self-serving institutions. Let's build it for the “yet-to-be” humanity; and tell the story of how we saved the world for them. . . after the cataclysmic event of 2008 - 11.

Gain Mastery of the computer and “psycho-technology” — to develop a culture of harmonious cosmic-consciousness. . . With a Trintab Paradigm.

Start NOW! — Let's stop dilly-dallying. Let's do something, NOW!

Example: In the Game of Creation someone, like you or me, has a deep desire to do the highest and most good for the health of the earth and humanity. We discover a "Brilliant World" of Cosmic Conscious Visionaries. It is a great idea which merits duplication. How do we give it power? Why not a pledge of personal commitment to the future.

A pledge is made. . . "I, Joseph W. Edwards, do pledge $1.00 to symbolize the giving of my 100% towards creating an environment that is positive for the evolutionary development of Earth and the human species. This symbol will be held until called for to bring about the reality of a brilliant idea to manifest the Ideal"

Chapter One

This is a story about a Gnome who lived in a little hut in the center of a little village called, ParadiseOzmorah in the luscious Land of Wee. Some call him, The VillageGrunt; others, The WizardSage. Although he is comfortable with either; he knows himself to be a Dream-Realist — one who facilitates the manifestation of visions into ventures which are coded, in fairy tale and fantasy. The goal is to bring about the creation of a plan to transform human consciousness to one of cosmic consciousness; which in turn will transform earth into the heaven it was meant to be — a paradise for all creatures, including you and me; bird and bee; weed and tree — all sentient beings.

The most apathetic are superfluous to the quest, and naturally attrit and fade into the endless abyss of eternal oblivion. Timeliness is the key to eternal existence. NOW, is the time.

By way of a simple pledge he vows to conjure up enough energy that will be felt for the next thousand years and beyond. This is his pledge:

“I the wizard sage of Wee. . . _____” This your story.
You fill in the Blank.

Commenting — I begin this submission as a fairy tale/fantasy because it is geared to the future of the unborn children of tomorrow.

To prepare for the future of the human species we must, first become the vanguards of life in the third millennium with the Herculean task to bring body, mind and spirit into a global paradigm of cosmic consciousness.

Our time on earth is finite; but within this finite reality there exist a realm of nonfinite potential. For the human race this can only exist with the primordial propagation of all species. If we are to survive and prosper we must invest in the visions of our youth. . . Even before they arrive; though we may not live to see the ultimate outcome of our efforts.

We must prepare to teach them, with all appropriate resources — all things we know to be a positive force in human evolution while concomitantly eliminating all things we know to be a negative. Unlike no time in history, today this is infinitely possible — timeliness is essential!

We must establish means by which to refine our development by reverse-engineering how we got to a level of consciousness that perceives perfection as a standard to aspire. Subsequently endowing our offspring with the benefits of this intuitive initiative, featuring them as walking/talking examples, leading us toward the path to utopia; which they, themselves, will discover with our guidance.

Now, I don't profess to be a writer or anything like that. I am an idea type of person. I love to ponder simple solutions, simply because someone has to; and I can't expect that the "someone" might be you. Today any who has access to a computer has access to this story, and is someone who loves to write, writes well, and who have ideas that would rival my own. Of this, I'm sure. Let's find them; and help them discover their purpose. The idea is to "tell a beautiful and engaging story in the "cloud" of the web . . . then make it real. "There has gotta to be an App for that. . ." If not, there should be.

To begin, go here. . .
