

Kufri Chipsona 2

Morphological features

Canopy : Open

Stem : Green

Leaflet : Lanceolate

Flower : White

Tuber : White-cream, round with medium deep eyes and cream flesh

Sprout : Red-purple

Agronomic features

Adaptability : North Indian plains

Maturity : Medium

Average yield potential : 300-350 q/ha

Storability : Average

Reaction to diseases/pests : Early blight – not tested
: Late blight – resistant
: Charcoal rot – susceptible
: Wart - immune
: Viruses – not tested
: Cyst nematodes – susceptible

Consumer and processing quality : Easy to cook, texture waxy, flavour mild, free from after-cooking discoloration. High dry matter, low reducing sugars and low phenols. Suitable for making chips

Special attributes : Good for growing in spring season, frost tolerant