

La Chartreuse Wedding Brochure

La Chartreuse

Thénac

La Chartreuse, in the south-west of France, is an elegant, charming, and authentic luxury wedding venue, known for its beautiful stone architecture and features, sweeping countryside views, and the blend of rustic French charm with refined modern comforts.

Beyond the picturesque setting in the Bergerac wine region, the venue has earned a reputation for its outstanding service and attention to detail. Couples consistently commend the venue for its top facilities, warm professionalism, and responsive, flexible approach, ensuring a smooth experience, and exceptional value without ever compromising on quality.

Quai Cyrano Magazine (the official magazine of the regional tourism board) describes La Chartreuse as the rising star of wedding venues in the region!

As a British-French bilingual couple with strong local connections and a well-established network of partners and suppliers, the venue owners are your behind-the-scenes secret weapon when it comes to everything you are looking for and need for your wedding, making long-distance planning easy and enjoyable.

Features to inspire

The Pavilion Tent

One of the standout features at La Chartreuse is the elevated Pavilion Tent, an extraordinary setting for wedding meals and parties with a capacity for up to 180 seated guests.

Romance In Full Bloom

An elegant natural setting with stunning greenery and features throughout, the La Chartreuse gardens become your stage.

Celebration Spaces

A setting for every moment

La Chartreuse offers an array of versatile and beautifully appointed spaces, ensuring every part of your celebration has its perfect setting:

- The Pavilion Marquee – An exceptional 215m² marquee set on an elevated hard-floor platform, providing an elegant space for up to 180 seated guests.
- The Grand Salon – A refined, traditional château reception room of approximately 100m², comfortably seating 70 guests.
- The South-Facing Cocktail Terrace – Complete with outdoor kitchen, bar, professional cooking equipment, and beer taps—ideal for lively aperitifs under the sun.
- The Fountain Lawn – A romantic favourite for wedding ceremonies and unforgettable photographs.
- The Wooded Reception Area – Naturally shaded, this enchanting space is perfect for afternoon ceremonies or cocktails beneath a leafy canopy.
- The Indoor Commercial Kitchen – Fully equipped to cater for weddings and events with ease.
- The Swimming Pool – A serene retreat for relaxing and enjoying the atmosphere in the days before and after the wedding.
- Children's Play Areas – Featuring a football pitch, climbing frame, and swings to keep younger guests happily entertained.
- Indoor and Outdoor Restrooms – Including fully accessible facilities, ensuring comfort for all without the need for temporary hire.

Special Moments

Your wedding day will be full of special moments you'll want to hold onto forever. When you need a little precious time together to take it all in, La Chartreuse has plenty of quiet spots and beautiful backdrops for you. Whether it's a taking a moment to literally smell the roses, getting some spaces in the fields, strolling down the paths, or a quiet pause in the courtyard, these are the places where your photographer will be able to capture the moments that truly matter.

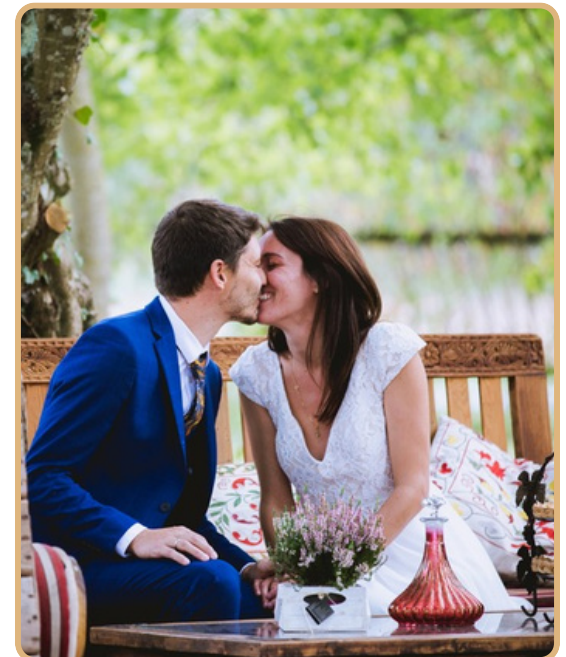

When you look back on this magical day, it's these little pauses that you will remember together and that make the day feel even more unforgettable.

Sealing The Promise Of A Lifetime

In this exquisite moment, when eyes meet and the world seems to fall away, the promise of a lifetime is sealed with a kiss. It is the silent language of love, a gesture that speaks of trust, devotion, and the joy of choosing each other for all the days to come.

This kiss is the first step into forever. It is not merely witnessed, but felt by the couple, by their loved ones, and by the everything around. It is the alchemy that transforms spoken vows into a living promise, the exquisite moment when a love story steps gracefully into its most profound stage. We know what this means and do everything we can to make sure these moments are as special as they deserve to be.

Family & Friends

A wedding at La Chartreuse is more than a ceremony, it's a gathering of your favourite people in one extraordinary place. Friends and family travel from near and far, bringing laughter, love, and shared history. Here, every embrace feels warm, every toast heartfelt, and every glance across the table a reminder of the joy of being together for this special moment. With its elegant spaces and charming grounds, La Chartreuse offers an atmosphere that feels authentic, elegant, and intimate. It is a setting that welcomes all. From sunlit gardens for personal conversations to lively reception areas designed for dancing and celebration, every space invites connection. Guests feel at home while still experiencing the magic of a destination celebration. At La Chartreuse, your wedding becomes a shared treasure, one that you, your family, and your friends will remember fondly for years to come.

A Feast To Remember

Whether it's a champagne reception or a relaxed cocktail hour, your guests will be treated to canapés that are nothing short of divine, little works of art, bursting with flavour, designed to delight from the very first bite.

When it comes to the wedding breakfast, you could not be in a more perfect place, after all, you're in the Dordogne, celebrated even by the French as one of the country's true culinary hotspots. We work with the best so every dish is a festival of fresh, local produce and exquisite flavour.

Memories For A Lifetime

Love Letters

It was a magical moment. Everything was perfect. All the guests were impressed by the beauty and calm of the place. A domain to choose with your eyes closed.

Melvin & Yannick

What a lovely setting, at the same time simple, elegant, rural, and romantic. It is soothing and charming, and the hosts coordinate everything with a discreet, efficient, smiling presence, and real kindness.

A great memory.
