

THE CHURCHMOUSE

Windsor Presbyterian Church April 2021

To the Flock . . .

Easter is almost here!

We are resurrection people. We are all about hope, grace, love, forgiveness, faith and new life. We believe God can do what is impossible for humans. We believe God is at work in our world, through us.

Faith is not based on what we can prove, but on what we can't, the unthinkable, the unbelievable—what God has done in overcoming sin and evil and death in Jesus of Nazareth. Faith is believing a small group of backwater deserters and deniers were able to take the seeds of Jesus' ministry and, by the power of the Holy Spirit, ignite an imperfect human movement of love still going strong and growing globally 2000 years later.

This faith, this Jesus we follow, this resurrection we celebrate is founded on the life, death and resurrection of God's chosen. In our tradition, we tend to want to skip over the horror of the trial and execution of Jesus and get to that empty grave. We want to proclaim Christ and him raised, but without the last supper, the command to serve each other, the institution of the Lord's Supper, the betrayal, the abandoning, the betraying, the trials, the indignities, the crucifixion and the death, there is no resurrection.

In other words, Jesus had to walk that lonesome valley for our sake. And we must also walk the lonesome valley of Holy Week to understand the gift we have been given and the love God has for us. In our Holy Week services, we retrace the footsteps of Jesus, hearing the stories anew, putting ourselves in the scenes to imagine the terror and the love.

To prepare for Holy Week, I encourage you to:

- Read Jesus' last teachings between the Triumphant Entry of "Palm Sunday" and the "Last Supper" (Luke 19:45-22:13) or perhaps all of the gospel. You may also read this section (or more) in the other gospels. (Matt. 21-26; Mark 11-14; John 12-17)
- Meditate on the Holy Week pictures on p. 6-8 (Palms, Basin and Towel, Crown of Thorns)
- Read the words of Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley, p. 4 and think about Jesus' feet in this song and throughout his journey—washing feet, walking, nails.... what else do you notice?

Most importantly, please come to these Holy Week services.

Going from the Triumphant Entry to the Resurrection will mean so much more if you also descend into the valley of Thursday, Friday and Saturday with Jesus.

Maunder comes from the Latin mandatum, or command, to love, serve, wash as Jesus modeled. Please bring a bowl or basin of water and a towel, as well as elements for communion.

We will wash the feet of those with us, or our own feet if we come to the service alone. This is not a comfortable thing for many people, but I encourage you to do it anyway. Jesus commanded it. And washing the foot of another and presenting our own foot to be washed requires vulnerability and trust and love. These may not come naturally, but Jesus invites us to risk, to serve and to be served.

The Good in Friday comes from good, in the sense 'holy, observed as a holy day'. Even if you have never attended these services before; even if you wish we could have them in-person, please come and deepen your faith by walking the lonesome valley.

Christian Formation - Angie King

Plans are moving ahead to form a Presbyterian Women's group. This month, I am meeting with Ann McGowan, who is deeply involved with PW and will be a great resource. A survey will be sent out to gauge interest and to find a good time to meet. My goal is to hold our first meeting in June, IN WARD HALL!!

It would be great to get a Men's group going again, too. If someone is interested in doing that, let me know.

Our Bible study will finish up with Luke mid-month and focus on Acts and Galations until the end of May.

April and Easter bring a beautiful time of renewal and rebirth. After this long, difficult, painful year, the grass greening, the sunshine, the yellow and purple crocuses are even more welcome than usual. Our Lord's resurrection fills us with hope and joy. Our thanks for God's strength, compassion and abiding love abound.

I want to share a lovely Mary Oliver poem called "Prayers:"

*It doesn't have to be the blue iris, it could be weeds in a vacant lot, or a few small stones;
just pay attention, then patch a few words together and don't try to make them elaborate, this isn't a contest
but a doorway into thanks, and a silence in which another voice may speak.*

Session Highlights - Angie King

Our March meeting was relatively short. We received brief updates from each of the teams, which you can read about in the Churchmouse.

Thanks to the generosity of the Grohe and Leitch families, Windsor is planning to use memorial funds honoring Glenna and Duncan to get a new sound system and upgrade our technology capabilities. Dallas Center Presbyterian Church recently installed new equipment and Dwight and Ron will be meeting with their representatives to look at what Dallas Center did. This is an exciting project, and we thank Dwight for heading up the AV Task Force.

Elders and Deacons attended a Zoom training retreat on March 19, 20, and 21, organized by Pastor Shamaine. Friday evening, we divided into chat rooms and answered questions designed to help us get to know each other better. Saturday, Ian McMullen, from our presbytery, presented an excellent session on being a church leader. We met again Sunday afternoon to begin incorporating what we learned into a discussion on where and how Windsor can move forward in the future.

Many thanks to Shamaine for putting this opportunity together.

Hospitality & Special Events - Sue Cooper

WPC lost a long-time member and friend with the passing of Keith Baker on Saturday, March 6. He was the blessed husband of Nancy and father of Ellen and Molly, who were his treasures. Keith worked at Schmitt and Henry Manufacturing Company and Eagle Iron Works, from which he retired in 1990. At WPC Keith served as a deacon and usher and was a member of the Building & Grounds Committee. For a number of years, he and Nancy led the church senior fellowship group WOMPS. We extend our heartfelt Christian sympathy to the Baker family.

Heading to Texas!

Leon and Lucy Sanderson have arrived in Texas to stay for the time being. Their daughters Mary and Kathy live in Dallas and look forward to having their parents there. WPC gave them a big send-off on Saturday, March 13. (See photos on page 12.)

Their new address is 3834 Merrell Road, Dallas, TX 75229.

The Lenten Faith We Sing (GTG No. 213)

*In the cross of Christ I glory, towering o'er the wrecks of time;
all the light of sacred story gathers round its head sublime.*

*When the woes of life o'er-take me,
hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
never shall the cross forsake me;
lo, it glows with peace and joy.*

Leon and Lucy singing one of the Lenten songs they had requested at EvenSong.

Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley

1 Jesus walked this lonesome valley,
He had to walk it by Himself;
O, nobody else could walk it for Him,
He had to walk it by Himself.

2 We must walk this lonesome valley,
We have to walk it by ourselves;
O, nobody else can walk it for us,
We have to walk it by ourselves.

3 You must go and stand your trial,
You have to stand it by yourself,
O, nobody else can stand it for you,
You have to stand it by yourself.

Our theme for Holy Week this year is "Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley." When I ponder the words of this song, I am humbled by how alone Christ must have felt many times in his life, especially when nailed to the cross. I'm reminded by the words of verses two and three that I, too, will be alone before God someday, with the words "you must go and stand your trial."

Choir Tone Up - Natalie Steenson

A special thanks to the Choir Tone Up for providing special music for worship. The Vocal Ensemble consisting of Jim Behrens, Dwight Tomes, Cindy Ray, Terri Wilcox and Sandi Ryan provided individual music recordings of Kyrie by Andy Beck that Natalie Steenson was able to combine together with music software to create “virtual” choral experience.

The Choir Tone Up Vocal Ensemble is planning to provide more music “virtual performances” to share with the congregation of Windsor Presbyterian. If anyone would like to join the Choir Tone Up, you can easily join through the provided link in the Windsor Weekly.

Walking with Jesus to the Cross - Cindy Ray

It has been a journey. We started the journey last March when the Covid Pandemic became a shocking reality for us all. I didn't think things would be the way they are now. First of all, public opinion indicated we would all be sprung in May. I guess they never mentioned May of what year. We thought we would be back together by June, I think, at the latest. I suspect originally some of us thought we would be able to spend Easter together at church. There was no vaccine yet, and the illness became a political pawn in a game of chicken chess, maybe you could call it. It seemed as if a person either believed we were in a dangerous time or didn't. It didn't seem as if there was much middle ground on it.

I didn't think we would have Fisher anymore, and he nearly lived into that prediction late in the summer. Fall seemed as if we ought to be getting back to normal, but things got worse. Wearing a mask has become the norm.

Winter came and with it vaccines, and we gradually have been able to get access to them, though even now people aren't all getting the vaccine. We are still meeting on Zoom, but we have grown so much in the quality of what we do on Zoom, thanks in no small part to Natalie Steenson and her family.

We are now on the cusp of changing again—maybe soon back to our beloved building. It will seem strange there with the loss of Keith Baker, Bill Bishop, Duncan Leitch, Ross Paschall, and Glenna Grohe. Sandersons aren't going to be here on a regular basis.

We are still together, and this is a good time to walk with Jesus to the cross. On the You Version Bible App there are seven day plans and longer that can take you to Easter. I have signed up for one. During Holy Week you can worship daily by reading part of the gospel stories concerning Jesus' journey to the cross. They are filled with controversy, confusion, and poignance. I have done this before. Especially when I have, I have felt closer to Jesus, and after it is finished, I find myself feeling a sense of emptiness. “Holy Saturday” feels sacred and empty, but I have a sense of anticipation about the coming of Easter, and when Easter comes, I have a sense of the victory over the grave. Let's all walk with Jesus to the cross this year.

Our Lenten Journey . . .

by Natalie Steenson

*Jesus walked this lonesome valley,
he had to walk it by himself.
Oh nobody else could walk it for him,
he had to walk it by himself.*

These words from the Appalachian folk song and African American Spiritual tradition remind us of the journey that Jesus walked and as we follow him to the cross, it becomes our walk too.

*We must walk this lonesome valley,
we have to walk it by ourselves.
Oh, nobody else can walk it for us;
we have to walk it by ourselves.*

Holy Week begins Palm Sunday when we wave palm branches and shout “Hosanna (save us now), blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.” This is the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. We then move to follow Jesus on the road to the cross.

... Through Holy Week

We will continue our Lenten Journey as we gather for Maundy Thursday. The word “Maundy” comes from the Latin meaning “commandment.” Specifically the commandment in John 13:34-35:

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

Our Maundy Thursday service will be a foot washing service a symbol of love and humility. “If then I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you” (John 13:14-15). Jesus teaches us to follow him and wash each other’s feet in humility and love.

The Maundy Thursday service will end with communion remembering Jesus’ Last Supper and a foretaste of the heavenly banquet.

On Good Friday we will solemnly remember the day Jesus willingly suffered and died for us as the sacrifice for our sins. This service will have scripture, candles, and music, ending in complete darkness. We will enter and exit the space in quiet.

Join us as we follow Jesus on this Holy Lenten Journey.

*I have decided to follow Jesus, I have decided to follow Jesus.
I have decided to follow Jesus. No turning back, no turning back.*

On Sunday we will celebrate together Jesus’ glorious resurrection at both the Sunrise Service and Resurrection Sunday Service.

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

Mission & Stewardship - Rich Teig

Windsor Presbyterian has a history of generously supporting the One Great Hour of Sharing offering. Donation totals for 2021 will be available sometime after Easter. Thank you to all who have contributed or are planning to support OGHS. Our offerings help people through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People. The Disaster Assistance program includes a National Response Team, an International Response and a Refugee Ministry. The hunger program in 2019 included 453 beehives, 63,500 seedlings, and 63,000 kg of seeds, plus numerous other forms of assistance. The Self-Development program supported Put People First in Philadelphia, Sacramento Homeless Organizing Committee and a catering service in Panama by Group of Women of Value, plus numerous other endeavors.

In addition to the OGHS special offering, WPC members and friends continue to support the CFUM monthly meal and the DMARC Food Pantry. Thank you to the many volunteers who provide food and preparation time to make 80 meal sacks to be delivered the first Thursday of every month to the community near Trinity Methodist Church. The Food Pantry donations are off to good start for 2021 with $600 through the end of February.

One of the local missions that WPC contributes to is CROSS Outreach. Besides dollars donated, some WPC members have donated considerable volunteer hours. This organization works to prevent homelessness and provides basic needs for people in our community. They advocate for changing social, economic and political systems which perpetuate poverty and oppression. One outreach in which we participate is the Back to School Giveaway.

Personnel & Finance - Ron Grohe

The month of February was not kind to Windsor.

The Operating Fund had a Net Loss of $7,200. Total Income ($6,345) was $7,000 below Budget and Total Expenses ($13,589) were $200 over budget.

For Income, General Contributions were $6,200 below budget, Mission Offerings were $200 under budget and Miscellaneous Income was $600 under budget.

For expenses, Personnel expense was $800 under budget, Buildings & Grounds expense was $800 over budget, and all other expenses were only slightly in excess of budget.

The Capital Fund was, once again, inactive, with no income and very minor expense.

We need to all give what we can and pray that the Lord will continue to look with favor on our congregation.

And though we will not have a service on Holy Saturday, I commend you to set aside some time to remember and contemplate the import of this most holy day when Jesus lay dead in the grave. Then, when we get to Easter morning, we can proclaim with faith and joy that Jesus is Risen, indeed!

Pastor's Office Hours—I will begin hosting virtual office hours 10:00-11:00 on Tuesday mornings. Stop by to visit with me and whoever else shows up. If you would like to have an in-person visit at the church or in your home available, I'd be happy to arrange one with you.

Prayer Request

Josh McKenna will take his last ordination exam. It is the exegesis exam, where he will be given a text and needs to show that he understands how to translate from Hebrew or Greek, study the passage to draw out meaning, and give an explanation and interpretation of the text for a particular audience. He will receive the text on April 24 and have a week to complete the exam. Please pray that he will be able to juggle all of his responsibilities (family, classes, and church) and demonstrate his preparation and readiness as he faces one more hurdle on his road to becoming the pastor God is calling him to be.

My Favorite Hymn - Linda Newsom

Do you have a favorite hymn that you would like to share with the congregation? If so, please email the church office and tell us why it is special to you. You can write it yourself or talk to Ann McGowan in the office and she will write it. This month Linda Newsom shares one of her favorite hymns with us.

Every Morning is Easter Morning

Like anyone who has grown up in the church, choosing one favorite hymn is impossible. There are favorite hymns for every season and for every occasion, but since we are so close to Holy Week, I decided to write about my favorite Easter hymn. My favorite Easter hymn is "Every Morning is Easter Morning" by Donald S. Marsh and Richard Avery, from their collection "Hymns Hot and Carols Cool."

This particular hymn is a bit more contemporary, and not to everyone's taste, but it means a lot to me, especially since it was a hymn we sang at the end of every Easter service at Knox Presbyterian Church. I don't remember which one of our pastors introduced this hymn to the congregation. It may have been Rev. Marty Rief, but in any event, it became an important part of our Easter worship every year.

"Every Morning is Easter Morning" was written by a prominent songwriting duo, Avery and Marsh. Rev. Richard Avery was pastor and Donald Marsh was church musician and arts director for First Presbyterian Church in Port Jervis, New York. Marsh served First Presbyterian for over 40 years, and together with Rev. Avery, composed more than 150 published hymns, carols, and anthems. Hope Publishing Co. took over sales of their works in later years and the best known of their works were "We Are the Church" and "Every Morning is Easter Morning".

This joyful, hopeful hymn resonated with me, not only because it was more contemporary, but the text reminds me that I should live every day as if it is the joyful Easter of the empty tomb. "Goodbye guilt, goodbye fear, good riddance! Hello Lord, hello sun! I am one of the Easter People! My new life has begun!" It sings of belonging to Christ's Easter People: "Yesterday I was bored and lonely, but today look and see! I belong to the Easter People! Life's exciting to me!"

And then there are the dynamics to the last verse. "Every morning is Easter morning, (softer) Every morning is Easter morning (softer) Every morning is Easter morning, (then loudly): FROM NOW ON!" So joyous! Somehow that little Knox congregation got it, and we sang softer and softer until belting out that last line, "From now on," as if it didn't matter who was in choir and who was in the pew, who could carry a tune and who could not, it just didn't matter. It always made me want to laugh out loud! We were wonderful. We were making that "joyful noise!" We were Easter people, and it all felt so good.

Refrain:

Ev'ry morning is Easter morning from now on!
Ev'ry day's resurrection day, the past is over and gone!

1 Goodbye guilt, goodbye fear, good riddance!
Hello Lord, Hello sun!
I am one of the Easter People!
My new life has begun!

Refrain

2 Daily news is so bad it seems the Good News seldom gets heard.
Get it straight from the Easter People:
God's in charge! Spread the word!

Refrain

3 Yesterday I was bored and lonely;
but today look and see!
I belong to the Easter People!
Life's exciting to me!

Refrain
