

Military Training Access Program

Program Summary — Fortiphyd Logic, Inc.

Fortiphyd Logic, Inc. offers a standing, publicly available program providing complimentary training access to eligible members of the U.S. Armed Forces.

What Is Provided

- One month of complimentary access to Fortiphyd's Student subscription tier on the Virtual Training Grounds (VTG), a cloud-hosted cyberphysical range used for hands-on industrial control system (ICS) security training.
- This is Fortiphyd's standard, publicly listed price for one month of Student-tier access ($49/month); no special or negotiated value applies.
- A 100%-off coupon code is issued to the applicant's verified .mil email address. No credit card is required at any point.
- Access automatically deactivates at the end of the one-month period. No charge is incurred and no action is required to avoid renewal.

Eligibility

- Open to active-duty, Reserve, and National Guard members of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces.
- Not available to DoD civilian employees or contractor personnel, including individuals issued a .mil email address in a contractor or civilian capacity.
- Eligibility is verified via a valid .mil email address together with the applicant's self-attestation of service-member status.
- Limited to one grant per person, once every three years.

Availability

- Up to 10 grants are awarded per calendar quarter, reviewed and approved on a rolling basis until that quarter's allotment is filled.
- This program is offered on a standing basis to the broader U.S. military community. It is not created for, limited to, or contingent upon any specific unit, exercise, competition, or event.
