

Dragonborn is a Turkish Epic Metal band combining epic, dark and aggressive metal with its own original fantasy universe.

The band's sound is built upon heavy riffs, twin guitar harmonies, orchestral layers and cinematic atmospheres, blending the intensity of death metal and the darkness of black metal with heroic storytelling and medieval themes.

Every Dragonborn release represents a chapter within the same connected world, where war, betrayal, dragons, ancient kingdoms and the clash between fire and ice shape the narrative.

The new 6-track EP "No Mercy" continues this journey through a darker and more aggressive direction while maintaining the band's epic identity.

The EP features an international lineup including:

Kevin Talley (Dying Fetus, Misery Index, Six Feet Under, Suffocation) on drums,

Jonny Maudling (Bal-Sagoth, Kull) on orchestral arrangements and keyboards, and Emanuele Rastelli (Crown Of Autumn) on bass guitar.

"No Mercy" presents Dragonborn's cinematic vision through crushing metal compositions, orchestral storytelling and a war-driven atmosphere inspired by medieval fantasy and legendary battles.

Current Lineup:

Ekrem Kani – Vocals, Guitars

Cihan Engin – Guitars

Berrak Saka – Vocals

Yudum Sürmeli – Bass Guitar

Çağrı Mustafa Yalçın – Drums
