

April, May, June 2020 Newsletter

There were no newsletters written during the spring and early summer. This was a period of Covid-19 and our new General Manager was adjusting to the job. The work crew was short an office person and multiple members of the landscape and maintenance crews.