

Are You One of Us? Is the glass always half empty; never half full? Have you tried therapy, medication, self help gurus?

Seen brief periods of improvement only to fall back into the cycle of self sabotage, even misery?

If you, like us, are addicted to self sabotage, you find yourself doing things that prevent you from experiencing the full joy of life.

The good news is that many have recovered and we can too. Working The 12 Steps, attending meetings, listening, sharing and getting a sponsor all aid in our Recovery.

We finally have Hope. Together we can Recover.

Live Life
to the fullest

Let Go of the Past

Have the experience of being Happy,
Joyous and Free
