

Downtown Livermore Art Stroll Contract – Berkshire Hathaway

Location: Berkshire Hathaway is a real estate office on 1891 Second St, Livermore, CA 94550. Our host and proprietor is Cher Wollard, poet, artist, and supporter of the arts. For all communication, please contact the curator, Jen Huber.

Site Curator: Jen Huber Cell: 858.361.5724 Email: jen@jenhuberart.com

Artwork: Artists are encouraged to bring their best work. Well-done pigment archival prints are acceptable. Works on paper should be framed and protected. Work must be ready for display and wired for hanging. There should be no raw edged canvas, staples showing, or saw-toothed hangers. Works should be at least 6 inches or longer on their shortest side.

Shows will rotate approximately every three months. No nudes at this location.

Changeovers, putting up and taking down work, will be organized and scheduled by the curator at Berkshire Hathaway's staff's convenience.

Display Areas: 4 walls with white paint, hanging system, and excellent lighting. Curator will hang the show, bring your work at the scheduled date or drop off at the Bothwell Art Center after contacting Jen Huber at 858.361.5724 or jen@jenhuberart.com.

Labeling: The curator, Jen Huber will make and hang the labels using museum putty and card stock.

Sales and Commission: Sales are to be conducted through the artist, so ensure that you have your contact information clearly stated on your artist statement and/or label. If you have a suitable replacement artwork, which will benefit the show, you may sell the artwork directly. The artist is responsible for pickup/replacement of sold works.

 A 20% commission is charged and all money goes to AVA to help maintain AVA the Downtown Art Stroll project. Commissions are due at the end of the show and checks should be made out to Alliance for the Visual Arts. Checks and commission form can be mailed to:*

Wei- ting Chuang
1924 Fiorio Cir
Pleasanton CA 94566

Berkshire Hathaway usually plans a reception at their office to welcome the new art show. Information regarding this show will be communicated to you through the proprietor, Cher Wollard, or the curator, Jen Huber.

Insurance & Liability: Business owners and their employees cannot be expected to watch your artwork on display. Alliance for the Visual Arts, the Curator and the Coordinator are not responsible for loss or damage of artwork displayed at the business. It is expected that the artist have insurance to cover theft or damage to the work. There is no insurance coverage for artwork in this venue and that you hang at your own risk.

Neither Berkshire Hathaway nor AVA will not be held responsible for the loss or damage of artwork displayed in their store. Artists are encouraged to secure the wire of the frame to the hanging hook with a twist tie as a simple but effective means of preventing quick and easy theft.

Artist
Medium & Style
Cell
Email Address
Venue	Berkshire Hathaway

I have read and agree to the Downtown Livermore Art Stroll Contract.

Artist Signature: _____ Date: _____

Venue Curator Signature: _____ Date: _____