

The World's Youngest King to Receive the Prestigious World Civility Award

Royal Branding International News desk has learnt that King Oyo of Tooro who is the World's Youngest Ruling Monarch as documented in the Guinness Book Records, has been selected to receive the World Civility Leadership Award. According to the World Civility Spokesperson, Dr. Clyde Rivers who is also the Founder of iChange Nations and Ambassador at Large for Burundi, says that King Oyo will receive the prestigious award at this year's coronation ceremony at his Royal Palace in Uganda on 12th September 2019.

Dr Rivers who is the Global Spokesman for the World Civility Day, explains his selection of King Oyo and says, "You have served mankind with diligence, helping around the world. You are a true Ambassador of World Civility reflected in all that you have done and continue to do to care for mankind." Dr Rivers, who stays in California, USA, says that he came to know about King Oyo and developed interest in his work after having read "The Great Kingdom of Tooro: Discover its Friendly People, Amazing Culture and Hidden Treasures." This book was researched and written by Dr Patrick Businge: a greatness researcher at Royal Branding International.

In his acceptance letter posted on Dr Rivers Facebook Page dated 20th May 2019, King Oyo wrote, 'This is to express my sincere delight and gratitude, and with humility I accept this prestigious award in recognition of my work to the people of Tooro Kingdom, and my continued care and devotion for the world humanity through my role as the UN Good Will Ambassador on HIV/ AIDS (UNAIDS). With this award, King Oyo enters the ranks of Dr. Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia, the first recipient of the World Civility Award in Africa who, at the time of receiving the award, was one of the last living freedom fighters for the nations of Africa.

The World Civility Day was established as the global outreach of Community Civility Counts; a resolution for civility unanimously passed by the State Senate of Indiana USA, January 26, 2016. The creators of Community Civility Counts, Dr. Gordon Bradshaw and Dr. Charles Hughes have worked hard to establish civility in their home state of Indiana other states. Community Civility Counts has grown from a local initiative to treat others with respect into an international movement of World Civility with Oyo being the first King in the world to receive this prestigious award.
