

How to be the Light of the World

Why am I here? What is my purpose? These are questions that men and women struggle with most of their lives. The apostle Paul likens life to a race. He said, "Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

"He stressed that God has a goal for us to achieve and that we are to press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called us heavenward in Christ Jesus.

The question is, "What is that goal?" I believe that the words of Jesus best describe the goal. He said, "You are the light of the world."

I think that is our goal. We are to be a light in a dark world. Jesus told us to go into the world, make disciples, and teach them all that I have commanded you. During this course, you will learn the commandments of Jesus and learn how to make disciples and be the light of the world.

The course consists of thirteen sessions that describe the areas He wants us to be the light of the world and what it looks like if we accomplish that. Each session consists of teaching with examples followed by listening to God and sharing what he says with each other.
