

FROM THE DESK OF

Avi Nash

Greetings:

Before the official announcement is made in late November, I would like you to know that I am running to replace Democrat Eddie Morales in the Texas House of Representative District #74, which is a long stretch along the Texas-Mexico border. Join the “Campaign to Preserve the Freedom and Liberty in Texas.”

I would not enter this formidable race if I did not believe that I can win; but neither would I run for State Representative without a deep conviction that I can make an essential contribution to the District, State, and the people it serves. Even if you are not in District, I need your help to Keep Texas Red.

In my years as a political office holder, and in travels throughout the district and state, I have listened to many people who are frustrated, and dissatisfied with our government. I constantly hear about how we need more control over border security issues, how estranged from the decision making process you feel, and how troubled by the dishonesty of public officials is affecting this State, and with good reason, many have lost faith in state and federal programs that waste their taxes while the needs of the people go unmet. See Nash Run for you!

I believe that the problems which plague our people can be solved with bold, competent, and honest leadership. With your support, and the support of many dedicated Texans, we can prove, especially in this District, that government can be responsive, practical, and fair.

I am all about transparency of government. I stand for quality education, personal responsibility, rugged individualism, border security, and lowering taxes. I stand for you! I think that you will agree that those principles are needed at the state level. With help from you and thousands of other concerned Texans, I intend to take them to Austin.

I have the support of voters across the state of Texas, within and out of this District, but that is not enough. The numbers will grow as news of the campaign spreads. Endorsements will also come soon. In the meantime, I am requesting your endorsement and support.

I will devote my time to the District's needs. People are eager to see a candidate who will talk, walk, and run with them. I will not walk away from our issues, I will address them head on, anywhere. I plan to take my campaign to the people, and succeed in Austin.

I must rely on assistance from thousands of people like you, whose only request from the government is that it be fair to all. I am asking for that assistance now! It won't be easy. You know that, and I know that. With your help, I'd like to see Texas return to the high standards, and ideals on which it used to be. #KeepTexasRed

As my family, and I embark on the first stages of the campaign, we need your financial support. We need your prayers, and the confidence that comes from knowing friends like you are backing us in our efforts.

I will deeply appreciate you participating in this campaign, even if you are not in my District—your comments, suggestions, contributions, or pledge is needed and appreciated. Thank you, and See Nash Run for you! #SeeNashRun

Sincerely,

Avi Nash
