

September at the shop

Well, Friday the 13th actually comes on Friday this month—does anyone remember Pogo, the little possum of the Okefenokee? He kept track of these things, and was always pleased when the 13th came on Friday. I do miss Pogo and his friends, especially at Christmastime when we often got new verses to “Deck Us All With Boston Charlie.” Oh, well—long gone.

The Thrift Shop is very much here, however. Lots to choose from as the fall approaches. Come right in and start shopping. St. Andrew’s fall yard sale is this weekend—September 13 and 14—and, as usual, the shop will be open both days. Opportunities all ‘round.
