RRCR ADOPTION AGREEMENT (PART 2)

The adopter agrees to provide to their new adopted cat and signifies herein by their INITIALS after each statement: a loving suitable home; good quality food; water; shelter; veterinary care and all necessities required for proper care. _____

RRCR has a NO DECLAW and an INDOOR ONLY policy. The cat is not to be left OUTSIDE unattended. If adopter lives in an apartment the cat shall not be left on a balcony unattended. _____

Adopter shall provide a scratching post and / or a corrugated scratch box for their cat.

The adopter acknowledges that it is a criminal offence to abandon an animal. _____

If the animal is impounded at an animal shelter, the adopter agrees to pay the impound fees to claim the animal back. _____

*If, for whatever reason, the adopter is considering having the cat euthanized, (except in case of severe medical emergency, where it is determined by vet that the cat is suffering) RRCR must be contacted. _____

The adopted cat shall not be rehomed; brought to a shelter; or given away, without the knowledge of RRCR. If the cat can no longer be cared for, I agree that RRCR must be contacted. _____

The adopter understands that cats/kittens come to us with limited background information, and we DO NOT GUARANTEE the health of the cat or its temperament and do not assume any liability. We recommend that the adopted cat/kitten be kept separate for 7 days. All cats available for adoption have been vet examined and deemed healthy, and their vaccines will be up to date as possible at the time of adoption. Their vaccine status will be provided at the time of adoption. If age appropriate, most cats will have received Rabies and their first *FVRCP vaccine. (FVRCP -Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis, Calcivirus and Panleukopenia (also known as Distemper) _____

Presently RRCR is including the initial FVRCP vaccine, boosters and Rabies for the first year. If boosters and Rabies have not been completed at time of adoption, adopter agrees to complete them at the appropriate time, and they must be completed before the surgery. (Kittens cannot receive Rabies Vaccine until 16 weeks of age). After that I agree that it is the responsibility of the adopter to vaccinate on a yearly basis. The cat/kitten has also been microchipped and has been dewormed and treated with Revolution. _____

The adopter understands that spays and neuters are prepaid and included in the adoption fee and are done by the rescues' designated vet. (If required, cones and pain meds are the adopters' responsibility) The surgery and booster information will be provided ahead of time. It is imperative that the adopted kitten be spayed at approx 5 months of age. Missed appointments for vaccines and surgery may result in the return of the cat/kitten to RRCR. _____

The adopter understands that if within 7 days from the date of possession if the adopted cat/kitten requires medical attention, RRCR will cover the exam fee only for the adopted cat/kitten at one of their designated vets and/ or if the adopted cat is seen by a veterinarian who finds a medical problem at that time, the adopter has the option to refuse medical treatment for the problem, and bring the cat back directly to Roo Roo Cat Rescue for a refund of the adoption fee only. We do not cover or reimburse any expenses occurred at a non designated vet. _____

I acknowledge that RRCR have written on the cat bio what they know about the cats' temperament and behaviour to the best of their ability and knowledge. When bringing my newly adopted cat home. _____

I understand that I will need to let the cat settle in and decompress as well as get used to the new environment and people. _____

New surroundings may scare some cats and although it is not a common occurrence RRCR cannot be held responsible for any bites or scratches if they occur. _____

I understand that a home visit will be conducted by an RRCR designate upon review of my application and I will be contacted for time to set up such visit. (Due to Covid restrictions in lieu of a home visit, adopters will email in pictures of their home environment such as, food bowl/eating area, litter box set up, any beds, cat perches, scratching perches etc.) Instructions will be provided on phone interview. _____

I acknowledge that I have been provided with an information sheet detailing the best way to introduce a new cat or kitten. _____

I agree to have RRCR remain as the Emergency contact on the microchip registration. _____

I agree to pay RRCR the adoption fee of $300 for a kitten, up to 1 year of age ($550 a pair) _____ $300 for an adult cat ($550 a pair) _____

International, Special Breed cats $550 and up _____ senior cat $300 _____

*All adoption fees subject to 13% HST 75402 1731 Payable by cash or Etransfer to rrcrdonations@yahoo.com

I have read this agreement in its entirety, and agree that all statements and state agreements contained in this document are made by me and are truthful.
