

Help Shape the Future of History in Port St. Lucie!

Our dream of opening a museum has become a reality—and you can be part of it!

If you love our city's young but rich history and want to contribute to its future, consider becoming more than just a member of the Port St. Lucie Historical Society. We're looking for passionate individuals to join us as Volunteers, Committee Members, or even future Board Members.

♦ All volunteers must be current members of the Society.

If you meet any of the following qualifications or interests, we'd love to hear from you:

- ☒ A passion for furthering the mission of the Port St. Lucie Historical Society
- ☒ Willingness to actively volunteer
- ☒ Desire to assist with events, outreach, or fundraising
- ☒ Experience—or a willingness to learn—skills like archiving, collections care, social media, and other essential functions (We provide training!)

💬 These are working volunteer roles, and we truly appreciate any time or assistance you can give. Every contribution helps us bring our museum and educational mission to life.
