NICE TO MEET YOU!

Hello, Rachel here. In 2014, I started out as The Nap Time Artist, painting only during my son's naps. I switched over to watercolors when I found out we were expecting our second baby. Out of necessity and lack of time, I hand crafted a 6 color mini watercolor palette using an old Altoids tin and some cut up plastic Gerber baby food lids and painted from the front seat of our minivan. (It's amazing how compatible art and motherhood are.)

A lot has changed since then. The kids are in school and I am working in my art business full time. Having the opportunity to do both of my dream jobs all at once has been the greatest blessing of my life. My work has been featured by uncommongoods and I've had the opportunity to partner with some amazing organizations such several National & State Parks and the Maryland Citizens for the Arts.

Much of my art celebrates motherhood in one way or another. The fruits, cookies, donuts and milk were all painted as part of my "Toddler Snacks" series. A collaborative project between my (then) 3-year-old son and I. He picked the subjects and then ate the "props" when I was finished painting them.

The 50 state series was painted as a bucket list of sorts- a way to show my kids where I've been or want to take them someday. It also weaves many of my family & friend's memories together since their images were painted as they were submitted to me by loved ones.

My latest series, entitled "Love notes from a 4 year old named Mia" is just that. After 2 years of saving little hilarious/cute one liners that our daughter said to me during bedtime, I decided that her words needed to be out in the world making other people smile. (Oh, and lots of flowers, pinks and purples because those are her favorites.)

Every single wholesale order I receive still has me pinching myself (!!!) it's where your adventure and mine get to meet in person.

I look forward to working together!

Rachel

CUSTOM REQUEST? let's chat!

I am happy to bundle your items in different qtys or give suggestions if you would like to put together a starter pack. Or, maybe you want a fun way to celebrate your storefront by getting a custom illustration just for YOU!

Get in touch via email: rachelalvarezart@gmail.com

While I don't typically take custom painting requests for wholesale due to time restraints, I am more than happy to consider them, as time allows, if there is a particular scene that you feel would be a perfect fit for your customers.

After all, you know them best!
