Wisc Dells WI 9/8/18-Noah Eisenhower from Freeport IL was crowned the Dells Raceway Park 2018 INEX Legend Rookie of the Year. Noah finished the year with 6 top 10 finishes and 2 top fives in 8 starts and 2nd place in the overall point standings for the Division.

2018 Dells Raceway Rookie of the Year!

On September 8th, Noah came into the race night 70 points out of First place in the points standings. Every point counted and Noah knew he had to get to the front in every race. After a dismal 14th place Qualifying effort Noah started the Heat race in 3rd and drove his way to the front for the Win! Going into the Feature Noah had a mathematical chance to win if the 1st place car was damaged in the Heat race or was wrecked early in the Feature race. As luck would have it, a wreck happened coming to the green flag lap causing damage to the 1st place points #27 Dillon Schwanbeck. As the race restarted, Dillon was able to repair his car enough to complete enough laps to finish 36 points ahead of Noah. If Dillon would not have been able to repair his car, Noah would have won both the Track Championship and Rookie of the Year! Noah still had an awesome race and finished in 8th place and won the 2018 Rookie of the Year at the Dells Raceway. *

2018 Jefferson Speedway Rookie of the Year!

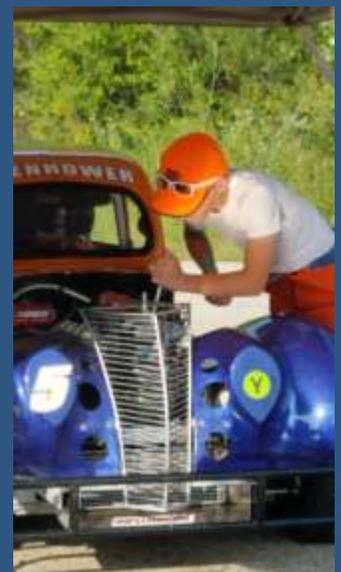

On September 1st Noah came into the Season Championship race in 5th place at Jefferson Speedway.. Ten Legends cars were in attendance for the Wisconsin Fastrac Series Tour.

Noah went out for Hot laps and turned some decent laps and the car handled well. We made a few minor adjustments for the Heat race since the track was cooling off. Noah started in the rear of the Heat race and got right up on the wheel and battled for position. Going for 3rd position into corner 1, Noah had the inside line until the car he was passing came down on him causing that car to spin in front of Noah. The contact with Noah caused his front wheels to be knocked out of alignment and was forced to start in the rear of the field. Coming to the restart Noah drove the car hard trying to get back up to the front with an ill-handling car. Noah ended up in 4th place in the Heat race.

In the feature race Noah started in 5th place and quickly made his move to the front in lap 1 by going three wide out of corner 2. He was hung out due to traffic and fell back into place in 5th position for the next 10 laps. On lap 12 Noah started to reel in the cars in front of him and made a pass for 4th place. On lap 16 Noah set up a low line pass out of corner 4 for 3rd place and quickly made a pass for 2nd place for one lap until a small mistake coming out of corner 2 allowed 2nd place to pass him. Noah tucked in behind 2nd place for the remaining 3 laps trying to set up runs for a late race attempt for 2nd place. Noah finished the Season Championship night in 3rd place and rose to 4th place in the points standings and secured the 2018 Jefferson Speedway Rookie of the Year. *
