Buckingham Palace £57

Mon 1 Sep

Most of the year Buckingham Palace is the office and London residence of The King and Queen. But since 1993, during the summer months, the palace is open to the public. Visitors can walk around 19 magnificent State Rooms which are the main reception chambers of Buckingham Palace, used by the monarch and members of the Royal Family for all kinds of ceremonial, official, diplomatic and personal occasions. There are many famous, must-see moments within these spectacular rooms. Don't miss the red-carpeted Grand Staircase, the Throne Room and the breathtaking Ballroom. The White Drawing Room, perhaps the grandest of all the State Rooms, serves as a royal reception room for The King and members of the Royal Family to gather before official occasions. While you take in the splendour of the room, see if you can spot the enormous hidden door formed from one of the four side cabinets and mirrors. Could there be a more British welcome than tea at Buckingham Palace? Enjoy the Garden Café on the West Terrace - a cup of tea with a view! It is a moment to rest your feet and indulge a little. As well as tea, they also serve coffee, cold drinks, sandwiches, and sweet treats. If you prefer a pick-me-up on the move, there are also ice cream stands as you walk along the Garden path. One not to be missed and we aim to leave at approximately 16:00

A visit to Deal and Sandwich £21

Tue 2 Sep

Deal in Kent has an award-winning high street, mazy smugglers' lanes and independent shops. Buzzing cafes and pubs sit alongside a photogenic seafront that's home to a sweeping pier and quirky maritime clock; the Timeball Tower. It has a lovely seafront promenade and a pebble beach with small fishing boats pulled up on the shingle. It's a perfect place to spend time relaxing. There is a collection of little fashion boutiques, vintage shops, quality food shops and other shops for you to browse. We also visit Sandwich today. With a feast of medieval architecture, Sandwich boasts some of the best-preserved half-timbered houses in the country. We aim to leave at approximately 16:00

Tower of London Remembers – 80th Anniversary, End of World War Two £59

Tue 7 Oct

Don't miss the chance to see a new special commemorative display of ceramic poppies installed inside the Tower of London to mark the 80th anniversary of the end of the Second World War. The display of nearly 30,000 of the original poppies, made for the 2014 installation, 'Blood Swept Lands and Seas of Red', returns to the Tower, marking the sacrifices made by so many during the Second World War. The specially commissioned installation resembles a 'wound' at the heart of the Tower, which was itself bombed during the Blitz. Poppies pour across the lawn overlooked by the ancient White Tower, where the blood-red flowers form a crater, with ripples flowing outwards. On display within the Tower's walls, the installation creates striking images, reminding us of loss through war, and of the long-lasting impact of conflict. It creates a shared space for visitors to remember and reflect on the collective sacrifice of so many in this important anniversary year. We aim to leave at approximately 16:00

Brick Lane Music Hall, 'Westend to Broadway' & three course lunch (lunch time) £89 Wed 8 Oct

This show features some of the great songs from favourite musicals - West End to Broadway - an all-singing, all-dancing, extravaganza! At Brick Lane, you will have fun from the moment you arrive. The famous Music Hall and its totally unique venue receives worldwide acclaim and attracts audiences from all over the country to its home in Silvertown in London's Docklands. Named after its original home in Brick Lane, Brick Lane Music Hall is proud of its East London heritage. If you fancy some good old British humour, then this trip is for you! Today also includes a delicious three course lunch served before the show starts. One not to be missed! We aim to leave at approximately 17:00 after the show

Three hour river cruise, Thames at War with dig for victory lunch - Windsor £61 Thu 9 Oct

Step back in time as today we head to Windsor for the 'Thames at War' cruise. As you board you will be taken back to the atmosphere of World War II with a victory themed vessel even down to the tape on the windows. The Captain and Sergeant in charge of the vessel shall welcome you aboard. There's a live war time commentary and you might even spot the Windsor Hurricane on route - a full sized replica standing as a reminder that Windsor remains protected and defends the Thames at war. Enjoy a true dig for victory meal that will be served one hour into the cruise of sausage meatloaf with glazed carrots, parsnips, mashed potato and gravy followed by Spotted Dick or Roly-poly both served with custard. After lunch, enjoy the tunes that inspired a nation against great odds and imagine what life would have been like not only during the world wars but as part of the military history of these islands. We aim to leave at 15:15 after the cruise
