BY THE COAST, CLOSE TO THE COMMUNITY

A home in the heart of Bexhill-on-Sea

Established in 1978, St Nectans brings together the character of a Victorian home and the comfort of a caring community.

A short stroll from the beach and town centre, our home is close to local shops, cafés, churches, transport links and healthcare services. It is a setting that offers both peaceful moments and everyday connections.

Up to 35 residents | Couples welcome | Visitor parking

Room to relax

Enjoy our garden, find a favourite spot to sit, or spend time with family and friends.

DIGNITY. CHOICE. UNDERSTANDING.

Care that starts with the person

We take time to understand each resident's history, preferences and daily routines, so care feels personal and familiar.

Your choices matter

We encourage independence, personal interests and the everyday decisions that make life your own.

A plan built together

Care plans are developed with residents, families, advocates and healthcare professionals.

A listening ear

Moving into care can be an emotional time. Our team offers understanding and support to residents and families.

The little things count

From favourite meals to familiar routines, we pay attention to individual preferences and welcome feedback.

FRESHLY PREPARED IN OUR KITCHEN

Made with care, served with warmth

Our chef prepares meals on site, with seasonal menus and residents' favourite dishes in mind.

Dietary needs and personal preferences form part of each resident's care plan.

More than a meal

Our dining room is a place to enjoy home cooking, share a conversation and spend time together.

CONNECTION, INTERESTS & EVERYDAY JOY

Time for the things you enjoy

Our activities bring opportunities to join in, try something different and enjoy familiar interests.

Gentle movement • Pet visits • Seasonal celebrations

There is also space for quiet reflection, with Sunday church services held in the home's prayer lounge.
