Dear Business Owner,

The Waccamaw Siouan Tribe will host its 49th Annual Waccamaw Siouan Powwow, October 18-19, 2019 at the Waccamaw Siouan Tribal Grounds in the Buckhead Community of Bolton, NC. The Powwow’s goal is to raise cultural awareness, maintain traditions and support our tribal communities. The Waccamaw Siouan Tribe requests your sponsorship to help reach our goals. In-kind donations are also accepted. The Waccamaw Siouan Tribe is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Donations are tax deductible.

For 49 years, the Waccamaw Siouan Tribe has revitalized Native American culture with the largest cultural and arts event in Columbus and Bladen County. Over 3,000 are in attendance and more than 500 local students are educated through School Day. 200 community volunteers help make this two-day event possible, with many working year-round. The Waccamaw Siouan Tribe manages the Powwow and all proceeds will support the more than 1,600 tribal members.

We have several sponsorship levels to accommodate your business needs. We hope that you will help support the cultural traditions of the Waccamaw Siouan Tribe.

Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Mathew Blanks, Waccamaw Siouan Tribal Chairman
Reah Jacobs, Waccamaw Siouan Pow Wow Chair

Investing in North Carolina’s Past, Present and Future

As a sponsor of the Waccamaw Siouan Powwow and School Day, you will receive recognition on our marketing materials and social media. In-kind donations are also accepted. During the Waccamaw Siouan Powwow, you will experience the following:

- Education and History: Over 500 middle school students visit the Waccamaw Siouan Tribal Grounds and learn of Native American History.

- Cultural Preservation: Invest in our state’s future by helping keep the traditional culture alive.

- Entertainment and Have FUN!: Come celebrate with us and enjoy the historical sounds of the region in song and dance.

The Waccamaw Siouan Tribe is state recognized and a non-profit organization. The tribe is self-sufficient and operates using federal, state’ and private grants.
Supporting North Carolina’s Cultural Heritage

The purpose of the Annual Waccamaw Siouan Powwow and School Day is to not only celebrate our culture, but to educate others that “We are Still Here”.

- Educated thousands of area students and spectators across Southeastern North Carolina in Native American culture of the past years.
- 3,000+ attendees annually from across North Carolina and the United States visit every year.
- 100+ Family Volunteer Event

We ask for your generous support in hosting our Annual Waccamaw Siouan Powwow and School Day.

“I had so much fun learning about the Waccamaw Siouan Tribe. My favorite parts were eating frybread and playing their cultural games.”
