A. Ahm picked up my girlfriend from work. Picked up my son, from his aunt's house. And ah

Q. What time did you pick up your girlfriend?

A. She gets off work at 6, so a little after 6 I usually pick her up. And I usually get back from his aunt's house if I pick him up early, after 7.

Q. You pick up your baby at 7, at his aunt's house?

A. Yup.

Q. And what did you do after that, sir?

A. Ahm after that I believe I went to go pick up a friend of mines. And ah we sat down and had a couple of beers.

Q. And what's your friend's name?

A. [REDACTED]

Q. [REDACTED] what?

A. [REDACTED] (sounds like), like throwing that but (sounds like) it might not show up for Sunday and Monday.

Q. And what you mean, sir?

A. Cause either Mon, either Sunday afternoon or Monday afternoon I went to go pick up some papers from a friend of mines grandmother.

Q. And who was that, who was your friend you picked up.....

A. My friend's name is [REDACTED] I picked them up from Mrs. [REDACTED].

Q. And where was this?

A. Ahm this is at home in the Faneuil Projects. You can double check with her on the day.

Q. And [REDACTED]

A. [REDACTED]

Q. [REDACTED] grandmother lives in Faneuil Project in Brighton.

A. She lives in the projects, yes she does.

Q. And you're telling me you don't know whether

A. It was either Sunday or Monday, I'm not, I'm not real sure on the date.

.....paper but I know .....paper on one of these days.

Q. It was either Sunday the 26th of March you was at the projects in Brighton or either Monday the 27th

A. Yup.

Q. of March you went to the projects but you're not sure what date?

A. No it's one of the two days. You can double check with her, she'll tell you the exact date.

Q. Now what is [REDACTED] actually to you?

A. Ahm just a long friend. I've known him since kindergarten

Q. Okay. Let's continue on with ah, with Monday.

A. Okay.

Q. So you're not sure what happened after 7:00 o'clock after you picked up the baby Monday?

A. No I'm not sure if whether that was the day or Sunday was the day. But I know after that about 9:00 I got it with my friend [REDACTED] and had some beers.

Q. About 9:00 o'clock?

A. Ya.

Q. And that could have been on Monday?

A. That was both on Sunday and Monday after 9:00. We both got .....

Q. Well how long did you guys stay together?

A. About two to three hours and then he went home.

Q. Where did you pick up Jonathan from?

A. From his house.

Q. And where is that located?

A. .... [REDACTED] (sounds like)

Q. Is that in Roxbury or Dorchester?

Q. All right do you stay there some time?

A. On occasion.

Q. Did you stay there that Monday night?

A. Yup, I've been there, Sunday night, Monday night, Tuesday night. I think Wednesday, Thursday I came home. I'm there this weekend. I stayed for the last three nights.

- Q. So you, you're not sure if you was over in the Faneuil Housing Projects on Monday night or it could have been on Sunday night?
- A. It could have been on Sunday night. Whenever his grandmother tells you the day, I'll go, I'll go with that. That's the day.
- Q. .... so either one of those two days that you're talking about, did you see [REDACTED]?
- A. Yup, yes I did.
- Q. And where did you see him first?
- A. First time I seen him is down around Dudley Station. Picked him up to receive information that he asked me to get from his grandmother.
- Q. Well how did he get in contact with you?
- A. Ahm I just page him and he called me back.
- Q. All right any particular reason why you paged him?
- A. Yup. I paged to see how he was doing. Like I said he's a good friend since kindergarten.
- Q. And he told you to pick him up at Dudley Station?
- A. Yup. He said he needed to pick up some papers so he could get a job. The reason I went to go meet him was because I felt he was getting his life together. He said ah he'd be there in about an hour. I went to pick him up. And then we went down to pick up the papers for him.
- Q. Did he tell you where he was coming from, when you picked him up?
- A. No sir.

Q. So you drove him to ah the projects in Brighton?

A. Ya I took him to ah, I took him to Dunkin Donuts. We stopped there cause he said he couldn't go into the projects.. So then I went in.

Q. This the Dunkin Donuts down on Market Street?

A. I'm not sure of the street. It's right across from the projects. And it's right across from the gas station. That big Dunkin Donut sign.

Q. Okay. And that's where you parked your car?

A. Yup.

Q. Then you walked over into the projects?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How long did you stay in the projects?

A. Ahm about 35 minutes. I had a conversation with his grandmother. Had the papers and then I left.

Q. And then what did you with ah Jason after that?

A. Ahm brought him back to Dudley Station and dropped him off.

Q. And then what did you do after that?

A. Ahm I went and picked up my friend, [REDACTED]. Ahm we just drank a couple of beers and I was in for the night.

Q. And how, what did you take [REDACTED] after you picked up the beers.

A. I'm .....I guess he went home on his own.

Q. After you picked up the beer you went to

A. Oh after we picked the beers we went back to the house ..... on [REDACTED].

.....drank a couple of beers and he went home.

Q. All right what time did he leave, [REDACTED]?

A. About 11. About 10:30, 11:00.

Q. And what did you do afterwards?

A. Went to sleep.

Q. And you stayed in the house all that evening?

A. That's actually why he left. I was falling asleep. I was hanging out with my girl. Ah he said he's out of here.

Q. So when is the next time you have contact with Jason after that?

A. Ahm Tuesday, he came up to my job.

Q. Tuesday morning the 28th of March?

A. I believe it's the 28th. He came up to my job on Tuesday. Looking for employment. Came up there, filled out application. Ah about between 10 and 11 I had my break. Went to my house. He got some clothes he had over there.

Q. What time did he come to your job to fill out the application?

A. About, about 10:00 o'clock.

Q. And after he filled out the application you went on a break?

A. He actually filled out an application after we came back.

Q. So he came to your job around 10, 10:30?

A. Ya. I had a break. I left my break, went to my house. Grabbed him some clothes.

Q. How far do you live away from the job?

A. Three minutes away.

Q. And you went to your, how did you get to your house? How was you traveling?

Q. And approximately how long did you stay there?

A. Ahm I stopped in, he grabbed his clothes. I used the bathroom. And we left and I went back to work

Q. When he came to your job, was he carrying a bag or anything, clothing with him?

A. No, not that I remember.

Q. But he did get a bag of clothes at your house?

A. Yes he did.

Q. What color was that bag, sir?

A. It was ah, it was just a plastic bag and I gave him my backpack to put it in. It was blue, royal blue bag that I gave him .....with the plastic bag in side.

Q. And then you took [REDACTED] back to your job? And he proceeded to fill out an application for employment?

A. That's what I assume.

Q. And how long did he stay there doing that sir?

A. Ahm after that I was down just working and he just left.

Q. You didn't see him when he left?

A. No.

Q. Did you hear back from him?

A. Ahm

Q. At anytime?

A. Yup that Tuesday night. He called me wanting to stay at a friend of mine, [REDACTED]'s house. And he wanted to know if I could make a phone call to see if he could stay there. I advised him to call himself. Ahm I'm not sure if he made the phone call. I did call [REDACTED] back and ask her if he was gonna stay there. She told me that if he doesn't come by when I said and I just told her if he did to give me a call and that was it.

Q. What is [REDACTED]'s full name?

A. Well her real name is [REDACTED].

Q. Do you know where she lives?

A. [REDACTED], sir. I believe it's [REDACTED].

Q. That's in [REDACTED], sir?

A. Yes it is.

Q. Ah do you know if [REDACTED] stayed at [REDACTED]'s house that evening?

A. I haven't, I did not ask him if he stayed at her house that night.

Q. Well did you drive him to [REDACTED]'s house on Tuesday?

A. No I didn't. Not Tuesday night. I did not.

Q. Have you spoken to [REDACTED] since then?

A. No I haven't.

Q. You didn't talk to him Tuesday night in regards to you talking to [REDACTED] about him staying at her house?

A. Ya that was, that was it. That was the last time I spoke with him.

Q. And what time in the evening was that sir?

A. Ahm .....later, before 9 o'clock. I know that.

Q. And then you left there and you drove to your girlfriend's aunts house and picked the baby up?

A. Yup.

Q. From where, where did you go from there?

A. Ahm I believe nothing. Just hanging out.

On March 28, 2000 Senior Criminalist Christine Stevens and Criminalist Susan Coyne, Crime Laboratory, responded to 89 Fanueil St. Brighton at the request of Sgt. Daniel Coleman, Homicide. Reddish brown stains, batteries, eyeglasses, one US quarter, a set of keys, an eyeglass lens and one piece of reddish brown stained matter (Items 11- 19) were collected and submitted to the Crime Laboratory for examination.

On April 4, 2000 the Medical Examiners Office submitted blood, hair and clothing (Items 20-28) to the Crime Laboratory for examination.

LABORATORY EXAMINATION:

Item 11- One pair of eyeglasses collected on the ground near victim's right hand. Retained, unexamined in the laboratory.

Item 12- Reddish brown stain collected on outside step at the entrance to 89 Fanueil St. Human blood was identified in the stain.

Item 13- One set of keys. Preliminary testing on a reddish brown stain on the medallion was positive, indicating the presence of blood. The quantity was insufficient for further testing. The keys were returned to Sgt. Coleman on April 25, 2000.

Item 14- One eyeglass lens collected from right corner on the outside entrance to 89 Fanueil St. Retained, unexamined in the laboratory.

Item 15- Piece of debris/matter with reddish brown stain collected from top step at the entrance to 89 Fanueil St. One triangular whitish piece of matter stained reddish brown. Piece measures approximately 7/16 inches x 1/4 inches x 3/8 inches and included a threadlike piece measuring approximately 1/2 inches in length, which detached during examination. Preliminary testing on a representative area was positive, indicating the presence of blood. Stereo microscopic examination of the piece revealed gray disc shaped particles. The particles were collected and retained, in the laboratory, without further examination.

DO YOU GO EVERY HOMICIDE SCENE - NO - HOW IS IT DETERMINED? DO ALL SCENES YIELD TESTING RESULTS.

The grouping was approximately 32-47 inches up from the floor and 10-12 inches from the inside doorframe. The largest stain measured approximately 1/8 inches x 1/4 inches. Human blood was identified in the representative stain.

Retained

On April 3, 2000 at approximately 1:00 PM, Det. McLaughlin and Sgt. Det. Coleman of the Homicide Unit met with [REDACTED] for the purpose of showing her a photographic array. This meeting with Mrs. [REDACTED] took place at Wadi's Restaurant which is located at 96 School St., Watertown. Mrs. [REDACTED] is the owner of that establishment along with her husband, [REDACTED].

At that time Mrs. [REDACTED] was shown a photographic array (BPD Gallery # 00-000434) consisting of nine photos of similar white females. As a result of looking at those photos Mrs. [REDACTED] positively identified photo #2 as the female who she had seen with Inaam Yazbek [REDACTED] on March 27, 2000 at Wadi's Restaurant. A taped interview had been previously conducted with Mrs. [REDACTED] relative to her observations of both "Yaz" (the victim) and this female on March 27, 2000.

As a result of this identification, Mrs. [REDACTED] was requested to circle the corresponding number to the photograph and to place her initials next to the number. Mrs. [REDACTED] did that and also signed the form in the appropriate location.

Incident location 89 Fanueil St. Brighton	Case # #10/2000	Method G/S/W
Report Re: Interview of [REDACTED]		Date 03/28/00

On April 3, 2000 at approximately 1:02PM, Det. McLaughlin and Sgt. Det. Coleman of the Homicide Unit conducted an interview with [REDACTED], a white male, dob [REDACTED], of [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED] is employed as a waiter at Wadi's Restaurant which is located at 96 School St., Watertown. The interview was conducted at the restaurant.

Mr. [REDACTED] was asked whether he knew the victim Inaam Yazbek and he stated that he knew "Yaz" and that he was a "good friend" of his. He stated that on Monday night (03/27/00) he was working at Wadi's and first saw "Yaz" at the bar at about 9 or 9:30 PM. At some point shortly thereafter he saw "Yaz" leave the restaurant.

Mr. [REDACTED] stated that at about 10:15 to 10:30 he observed a white female enter the establishment and stand by the bar as if she was waiting or looking for someone. He stated that he recognized this female from having been there on prior occasions with "Yaz".

Mr. [REDACTED] went on to state that within one to two minutes he observed "Yaz" enter the restaurant at which time he and the female sat at a table together. He stated that the two of them remained at the table where they ate appetizers up until about 11:40PM. At that time both the female and "Yaz" left the restaurant together.

Mr. [REDACTED] also stated that on the previous occasions where this same female had been to the restaurant, she and "Yaz" were usually accompanied by other people. He stated that the other females were both white and he believed that they were Russian because he heard them speaking Russian to each other. In addition they were usually with another male, also believed to be Lebanese, who Mr. [REDACTED] did not know by name.

At approximately 1:10PM, Mr. [REDACTED] was shown a photographic array (BPD Gallery # 00-000434) consisting of nine photos of similar white females. As a result of looking at those photos Mr. [REDACTED] identified photo #2 as being the female who was at Wadi's Restaurant on 3/27/00 with the victim Imaan Yazbek. As a result of this identification, Mr. [REDACTED] was requested to circle the corresponding number to the photograph and to place his initials next to the number. Mr. ██████ did that and also signed the form in the appropriate location.

The photo identified by Mr. ██████ was Boston Police Booking photo #99-00574-14. This is a photo of ██████, dob. ██████, a white female, of ██████. The photo was taken at the time of her arrest on August 4, 1999 at Area D-14.

In addition, Mr. ██████ also stated that after "Yaz" and the female had left Wadi's on 03/27/00, he found a white plastic cigarette lighter in the area of the table where they had been sitting. He later gave this item to "Yaz's" friend ██████ who stated that he would give it to the police. Mr. ██████ has since handed that lighter over to Sgt. Det. Coleman in a plastic bag. Mr. ██████ stated to Sgt. Coleman that he received it in the exact condition which he gave it to the police.

A. And shut the door.

Q. And as far as you're concerned, when was the next time that you saw [REDACTED]?

A. In the morning, ah before he left. He left about ya know 10:30, 11:00. He said he had to go to Northeastern to speak to, I forget the guys name. Stafford.

Q. Okay.

A. Ah Reverend Stafford. Or something like that. Ahm so he was leaving to go do that and he left some stuff behind. He said as he walked out the door he said ya know "I'm leaving a few things behind". So I said okay, no problem. So he left and I went in the room after him just to check to see what he had left. And he left a bag and some sweaters and some boots behind my couch.

Q. Okay. And ahm since that time have you seen [REDACTED]?

A. No.

Q. Okay have you heard from him?

A. Yes he called me yesterday. And told me he was gonna come by and pick up that stuff.

Q. Okay

A. But, he called me before last Friday, and he's called me several times since then to come get the stuff, but has never shown up.

Q. Okay so every time he's called and said he's coming he didn't show up?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

A. The last time he called I didn't tell you, that he did say he had a ride. I don't know who the ride was with but he was gonna get a ride to come to my house.

Q. Okay but he still didn't show up?

A. He still didn't show up.

Q. Okay and at some time ah on yesterday's date which would be ah April 4th of this year, ahm did you have conversation with a woman, woman by the name of [REDACTED]?

A. Yes I did. I did.

Q. Okay.

A. And she referred me to you. And said that I should turn over the, whatever information I had and the ah stuff he had left behind.

Q. Okay who is [REDACTED] to you?

A. My aunt.

Q. Okay.

A. Yes.

Q. And is she also [REDACTED]'s mother?

A. Yes she is.

Q. Okay.

A. She's [REDACTED]'s mom.

Q. Okay and at some time later in the day did myself and Detective Tom Traylor come to your house at [REDACTED]?

A. Yes you did.

Q. Okay and at that time ah did you ah give to us, ah two bags? One being a dark colored either navy or black knapsack and the other being a white plastic, like a trash like bag?

A. Ya, ya. I put his clothes into the trash bag. The two sweaters and the boots. I put all that in the trash bag.

Q. Okay and did we take those from you on yesterday's date?

A. Yes you did. Yes you took them.

Q. Okay. And ah the reason that you gave those to us ah was that because you didn't want them in your house anymore?

A. No I didn't. I didn't want them in my house at all.

Q. Okay.

A. Ahm I wanted to, I was ready to throw them out in the street but after she told me that you, ya know I thought it might be helpful.

Q. Okay and was part of that reason that you did not want them

A. Any contact with [REDACTED] Yes. I did not want to speak with [REDACTED] at all.

Q. Okay.

A. And I definitely didn't want to have any involvement in whatever, in maybe that he .....

Q. Okay. And since the time that we took that, have you spoken to [REDACTED]?

A. No.

Q. No. Okay. I have nothing further. Sarge.

SGT. COLEMAN: I have nothing at this time.

Q. Okay ahm that will conclude this interview. And ah at this time it is 1:36 p.m.

on April 5th. And ah [REDACTED] I thank you for your time.

A. No problem.

Q. And I appreciate you coming in.

A. No problem.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

- Q. You're speaker is Sgt. Det. Daniel Coleman with the Boston Police Homicide Unit. Today's date is Friday, March 31, the year 2000. The time is now 2:35 p.m.. We are currently at the Boston Police Homicide Unit interview room. With me today is Detective Wayne Rock of the Homicide Unit and Mr. [REDACTED].
- [REDACTED] We're here concerning a death investigation for Inaam Yazbek, who was found on March 28, 2000 at 89 Faneuil Street in Brighton. Mr. Vega I'd like you to just say your first name and last name. And please spell your last name for the tape.
- A. [REDACTED].
- Q. And Mr. [REDACTED] could I have your date of birth please.
- A. [REDACTED].
- Q. Okay and you're 21 years old?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Okay. And where do you currently reside?
- A. Ah [REDACTED], unit number [REDACTED] in [REDACTED].

Q. Okay and is that the first floor apartment?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And ah could I have a telephone number please.

A. Sure area code [REDACTED]

Q. Okay. Thank you. Are you currently employed?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Okay are you currently a student as well?

A. Yes at [REDACTED]

Q. Thank you. Mr. [REDACTED] I'd like, I'd like to draw your attention to ah Monday the 27th of March. This past Monday, late in the evening. Could you tell me if you were at home on that night?

A. Yes I was.

Q. Okay, I'd like to bring your attention to ah approximately 10:30, 11:00 o'clock at night. Could you tell me what you were doing?

A. Yes sir, around that time I was on the phone. I was speaking to my girlfriend after finishing some homework.

Q. Okay approximately what time did you finish speaking with your girlfriend?

A. Approximately 11:00 o'clock.

Q. Okay and what did you do next?

A. Ah I turned on my computer and started doing some research for one of my classes.

Q. Okay. And could you tell me ah while you were doing your work on the computer did you hear something outside?

A. Yes I did. I was doing some homework, ahm I heard ahm this, shoes walking next to my window. I looked out the window ahm it was a neighbor, should I say her name?

Q. Yes you can say her name.

A. Okay her name is [REDACTED]. I seen her walking by, ahm I figured I'd just go back to doing my homework. Ahm a little while after that I heard some shoes walking again going the other way towards the play area. Again, it was [REDACTED] accompanied with a friend whom I can't identify. I don't know her. And shortly after that I heard a bang. Like what to me appeared to be a firecracker sound.

Q. Okay. So you looked out, can you give me an idea about what time it was when you first observed [REDACTED] outside?

A. Ahm I'd say, I'm not very good at time, but I say approximately midnight, close to midnight.

Q. Okay.

A. Maybe a little after.

Q. And when you saw [REDACTED] the first time, did you see anyone else with her at that time?

A. Ahm no sir, she was walking by herself.

Q. Okay and when you made your next observation of [REDACTED] was she with someone at that time?

A. Ahm yes sir. A female.

Q. A female. And could you describe generally what she might have been wearing for clothing that night?

A. Ahm yes sir. I had a quick glance before the tree blocked my view. I seen a female, a little bit shorter than [REDACTED]. Ahm curly hair, dark. Ahm possibly a blue coat, maybe black. I know it was dark. And some blue jeans.

Q. Okay and I think ah prior to going on tape you had mentioned this girl's hair might have been shoulder length hair?

A. Ah yes sir. Approximately shoulder length.

Q. Okay. And ah where, could you tell where these two, what direction these two females were walking in?

A. Ahm yes, they were walking towards the play area, I don't know.....area.

Q. The "play area" for the record, when we speak about the play area in the Faneuil Development we're talking about the area where the benches and the picnic tables are, in the center of all the buildings, is that correct?

A. Yes, sir. Yes sir.

Q. Okay. ~~So the two females walked together toward that play area?~~

A. ~~I didn't~~ I heard the noise. And then when I heard the noise I figured that maybe somebody was playing games with them or something. I looked out the window. I didn't see anybody after that or hear anything after that. I thought I would hear them at least scream ya know because of the noise. But they didn't.

Q. Were you looking out the window still when you heard that noise?

A. Ahm no I wasn't. Right after I seen ██████████ and that other female walk to the play area, there's a tree in front of my window that blocked the view, so I just went back to doing my work. And shortly after that is when I heard the noise.

Q. Okay and that noise, could you describe what that noise sounded like?

A. To me it sounded like a loud firecracker. Close, similar to something like that.

Q. Did you hear ah a number or one noise? Could you tell me how many noises you heard?

A. Ah just one, one bang that's all.

Q. Okay and again you looked out the window after hearing that noise?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you able to see anything or anyone?

A. No.

Q. Okay. After looking out that window and seeing no one, ah what did you do next?

A. Ah just pursued my work on my computer and I layed down, went to bed.

Q. Okay. And at some point ah the next morning. Being Tuesday morning, did the police knock on your door at your house?

A. Ahm yes sir, they did.

Q. And that would be Detective Mahoney?

A. Yes.....Detective Mahoney.

Q. And spoke to you about an incident which may have taken place in the Faneuil Development overnight?

A. Yes. sir.

Q. Okay ahm, Detective Rock do you have anything at this time?

DET. ROCK:

Q. Ya ahm, just for the record, Detective Wayne Rock - Boston Police Homicide Unit. [REDACTED] just a couple of questions. What floor do you live on?

A. I live on the first floor.

Q. So you have a pretty good view outside your window?

A. Yes.

Q. How long have you known this young lady that you described as [REDACTED]?

A. Ahm approximately 45 years.

Q. So you're very familiar with her?

A. Yes sir.

Q. All right. Ahm when you first heard the noise that you described earlier, what was your first thought?

A. My first thought was some, somebody was actually like playing games with [REDACTED], trying to scare her or something. And then when I looked out, I didn't see her. So I figured it wasn't that.

Q. All right so the time that you heard the shot, you expected [REDACTED] to still be outside or, or meaning that the time between when you saw [REDACTED] and when you heard the shot was or the noise, was a short time?

A. Ya I assumed that they would still be out there.

Q. Okay.

A. That was my first reaction, my first thought.

Q. All right. I have no further questions.

SGT. COLEMAN:

Q. Okay and for the record, Sgt. Coleman speaking again. Ah Mr. [REDACTED] I'd like to thank you for taking some time to speak with us today. And I'm going to conclude the interview. It is now 2:41 p.m.. Thank you.
