Which is the right school for my student?

Choosing where to go to college
begins with considering where to apply.

Do you know where your child is applying?

Why are they applying
there?

College is not like high school, and often requires more time commitment from students.

Common College Fit Factors

Affordability - Can I afford it?

Admissability - Can I get in?

Major - Does it offer my major?

Proximity - Is it close to home?

College Fit Tips

- Give your student options
- Don't be afraid to apply to both private and public universities
- Don't just look at cost and proximity to home
- Don't be frightened by the price of the school

Making a Successful Transition

1. Take advantage of campus resources
2. Make the most of your time on campus
3. Make connections (network)
4. Meet your professors
5. Don't be afraid to ask questions
