TUESDAY AFTERNOON MOVIES

Tues. April 7 @ 3pm: Dave - Starring Kevin Kline, Sigourney Weaver. 1993 political comedy about a presidential lookalike who is hired to impersonate the U.S. president after he suffers a stroke, leading to unexpected consequences. Dave Kovic (Kline) is a temporary employment agency owner who impersonates President Bill Mitchell. After the President suffers a stroke, Dave is recruited to cover up an affair and remain in the role indefinitely. As he navigates the political landscape, Dave's charm and compassion win him the public and First Lady's affection.

Tues. April 14 @ 3pm: Red Notice - Starring Dwayne Johnson, Ryan Reynolds, Gal Gadot. An Interpol agent tracks down the world's most wanted art thief with help from a rival thief. However, the pursuit leads to a series of double-crosses as the trio navigates a daring heist and a complex web of alliances and betrayals. The film combines action, comedy, and a thrilling chase across various locations, culminating in a high-stakes finale that promises to deliver both laughs and suspense.

Tues. April 21 @ 3pm: Dead Poets Society - Starring Robin Williams, Ethan Hawke, Josh Charles. In 1959, students at Welton Academy, a prestigious all-boys boarding school in Vermont are introduced to their new English teacher, John Keating, whose unconventional teaching methods and different ways to look at life, lead the boys to form a secret society called the Dead Poets Society. As they embrace Keating's teachings and challenge the established norms, they face consequences and personal struggles.

Tues. April 28 @ 3pm: Jungle Cruise - Starring Dwayne Johnson, Emily Blunt. In 1916, Dr. Lily Houghton seeks an ancient arrowhead artifact, believing it holds the key to finding the Tears of the Moon. She hires boat captain Frank to take her down the Amazon, where they uncover secrets about the Tears of the Moon and Frank's past.
