AFTERNOON MOVIES

Tues. Sept. 1 @ 3pm: A Good Year: A charming romantic comedy starring Russell Crowe as Max, a wealthy, hard-nosed London investment banker who inherits his late uncle's beautiful vineyard in Provence, France. He travels there intending to sell it quickly, but the slower French lifestyle, the vineyard, and a lively local woman named Fanny begin to change his priorities. Along the way, he uncovers family secrets and reconnects with a happier, more carefree version of himself.

Tues. Sept. 8: No movie

Tue. Sept. 15 @ 3pm: A Knight's Tale follows William Thatcher (Heath Ledger), a poor young squire who disguises himself as a knight to compete in medieval jousting tournaments. With the help of his friends, he rises through the ranks, wins fame and fortune, and falls for a noblewoman - while trying to keep his true identity secret.

Thu. Sept. 17 @ 3pm: Coda: Teenager Ruby is the only hearing member of her deaf family. She dreams of becoming a singer, but struggles between pursuing her passion for music and helping her family with their fishing business. 2021 Best Picture winner.

Tues. Sept. 22 @ 3pm: Devil Wears Prada 1 follows Andy, a young aspiring journalist who lands a job as assistant to Miranda Priestly, the powerful and demanding editor of a top fashion magazine. As Andy adapts to the glamorous but ruthless fashion world, she must decide how much she's willing to sacrifice for success.

Tues. Sept. 29 @ 3pm: Devil Wears Prada 2 follows Andy years after her time with Miranda as she navigates a new chapter in her career and crosses paths with Miranda again. Their worlds collide as the fashion industry changes, forcing Andy to confront her past and decide what success really means to her.
