

109 Years Ago
109 Fruits today?

'I have sown the seed,' He said. 'You must water it. You must educate the souls in divine morals, make them spiritual and lead them to the oneness of humanity and to universal peace.'

A BRIDGE CONFERENCE SUNDAY DECEMBER 5, 2021

109 FRUITS FROM OUR PRACTICING UNITY IN DIVERSITY A TRIBUTE TO ABDU'L-BAHA

Abdu'l-Baha desired to see us coming together as one, forging strong bonds of unity, loving each other, and creating welcoming communities. This year, we have been asked to study profoundly the Life of Abdu'l-Baha. His 239 days in America ended on December 5, 1912. On this day in 2021, we will showcase initiatives that have born fruit from the seeds he planted 109 years ago.
