Shoghi Effendi indicates that the fasting period, which involves...

Complete (1) abstention from food and drink from sunrise till sunset, is essentially a period of (2) Meditation and (3) Prayer, of (4) Spiritual recuperation, during which the believer must strive to (5) make the necessary readjustments in his inner life, and to (6) Refresh and reinvigorate the spiritual forces latent in his soul. Its significance and purpose are, therefore, fundamentally spiritual in character. Fasting is symbolic, and a (7) reminder of abstinence from selfish and carnal desires.
Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating

"The fasting period, which lasts nineteen days starting as a rule from the second of March every year and ending on the twentieth of the same month, involves complete abstention from food and drink from sunrise till sunset. (Shoghi Effendi: Directives of the Guardian, Pages: 28-29)"

From Prayers and Verses from the Baha’i Writings
Ye are even as the bird which soareth, with the full force of its mighty wings and with complete and joyous confidence, through the immensity of the heavens, until, impelled to satisfy its hunger, it turneth longingly to the water and clay of the earth below it, and, having been entrapped in the mesh of its desire, findeth itself impotent to resume its flight to the realms whence it came.

(Baha'u'llah, Gleanings from the Writings of Baha'u'llah, p. 326)

Powerless to shake off the burden weighing on its sullied wings, that bird, hitherto an inmate of the heavens, is now forced to seek a dwelling-place upon the dust.

(Baha'u'llah, Gleanings from the Writings of Baha'u'llah, p. 326)
Wherefore, O My servants, defile not your wings with the clay of waywardness and vain desires, and suffer them not to be stained with the dust of envy and hate, that ye may not be hindered from soaring in the heavens of My divine knowledge.

Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating

3/2/2021

Compilation by Barbara Talley 2021
From Prayers and Verses from the Baha’I Writings

The spiritual fasting comes first, and is the soul’s refusal or denial of all kinds of evil actions and habits -- this is the important fasting. The bodily fasting or abstinence from food, is a sign or witness to the inward fasting, and is of no value by itself. But when both kinds of fasting go together, then the effect upon the soul is as “Light upon light.” (Compilation, Baha’I Prayers 9, p. 48)

Fasting is of two kinds -- spiritual and material.

Fasting is the soul's refusal or denial of all kinds of evil actions and habits.

What is Evil?

◆Abdu'l-Bahá. -- “Evil is imperfection. Sin is the state of man in the world of the baser nature, for in nature exist defects such as injustice, tyranny, hatred, hostility, strife: these are characteristics of the lower plane of nature. These are the sins of the world....” (Abdu'l-Baha, Paris Talks, p. 277)

Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
What is the Evil One?

◆ Let your vision be world-embracing, rather than confined to your own self. The Evil One is he that hindereth the rise and obstructeth the spiritual progress of the children of men.

◆ (Baha'u'llah, Gleanings from the Writings of Baha'u'llah, p. 94)
Prayer and Fasting are the twin pillars that sustain the Law of God.

Lights of Guidance, p. 465

Moreover, in the traditions the terms "sun" and "moon" have been applied to prayer and fasting, even as it is said:

"Fasting is illumination, prayer is light."

And as the sun and moon constitute the brightest and most prominent luminaries in the heavens, similarly in the heaven of the religion of God two shining orbs have been ordained -- fasting and prayer.

(Baha'u'llah, The Kitab-i-Iqan, p. 39)
Fasting Prayer

"O God! as I am fasting from the appetites of the body and not occupied with eating and drinking, even so purify and make holy my heart and my life from aught else save Thy Love, and protect and preserve my soul from self-passions and animal traits. Thus may the spirit associate with the Fragrances of Holiness and fast from everything else save Thy mention."

('Abdu'l-Bahá: Star of the West, Vol. IV, No.18, p. 305) 236 (print and frame)
Wisdom Of Prayer

The wisdom of prayer is this: That it causeth a connection between the servant and the True One, because in that state man with all heart and soul turneth his face towards His Highness the Almighty, seeking His association and desiring His love and compassion.

(Abdu'l-Baha, Baha'i World Faith - Abdu'l-Baha Section, p. 368)

The greatest happiness for a lover is to converse with His Beloved, and the greatest gift for a seeker is to become familiar with the object of his longing;

That is why with every soul who is attracted to the Kingdom of God, His greatest hope is to find an opportunity to entreat and supplicate before His Beloved, appeal for His mercy and grace and be immersed in the ocean of His utterance, goodness and generosity.
Power Of Prayer

BESIDES ALL THIS, PRAYER AND FASTING IS THE CAUSE OF AWAKENING AND MINDFULNESS AND CONDUCIVE TO PROTECTION AND PRESERVATION FROM TESTS....

(ABDU’L-BAHA, BAHAI’I WORLD FAITH - ABDU’L-BAHA SECTION, P. 368)

Ours should be the prayer that His blessings may be vouchsafed in still greater abundance, and ours to hold fast to such means as shall ensure a fuller outpouring of His grace and a greater measure of His divine assistance.

It hath been ordained that every believer in God, the Lord of Judgment, shall, each day, having washed his hands and then his face, seat himself and, turning unto God, repeat "Allah-u-Abha" ninety-five times. ... Such was the decree of the Maker of the Heavens... Perform ye, likewise, ablutions for the Obligatory Prayer; this is the command of God, the Incomparable, the Unrestrained.

(Baha’u’llah, The Kitab-i-Aqdas, p. 25)
"For the core of religious faith is that mystic feeling that unites man with God. This state of spiritual communion can be brought about and maintained by means of meditation and prayer."

(Compilations, The Compilation of Compilations vol II, p. 238)
“You cannot apply the name ‘man' to any being void of this faculty of meditation; without it he would be a mere animal, lower than the beasts.”

“THROUGH IT (MEDITATION) HE RECEIVES THE BREATH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT”

1. Likewise the Holy Spirit is the very cause of the life of man;
2. without the Holy Spirit he would have no intellect,
3. he would be unable to acquire his scientific knowledge by which his great influence over the rest of creation is gained.
4. The illumination of the Holy Spirit gives to man the power of thought, and enables him to make discoveries by which he bends the laws of nature to his will.”

During Meditation

• This faculty of meditation frees man from the animal nature,
• [Meditation] discerns the reality of things, puts man in touch with God.
• Through this faculty man enters into the very Kingdom of God.

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
MEDITATION

The inspiration received through meditation is of a nature that one cannot measure or determine. God can inspire into our minds things that we had no previous knowledge of, if He desires to do so. (25 January 1943 to two believers)

The Faculty of Meditation

O people of Baha! The faculty of meditation is the depository of crafts, arts and sciences. Exert yourselves, so that the gems of knowledge and wisdom may proceed from this ideal mine, and conduce to the tranquility and union of the different nations of the world.

(Compilations, Baha’i Scriptures, p. 151)
The meditative faculty is akin to the mirror; if you put it before earthly objects it will reflect them.

MEDITATIVE FACULTY

“The reality of man is his thought, not his material body. The thought force and the animal force are partners. Although man is part of the animal creation, he possesses a power of thought superior to all other created beings.

POWER OF THOUGHT

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
How Do You Meditate?

There are no set forms of meditation prescribed in the teachings, no plan, as such, for inner development. The friends are urged - nay enjoined -- to pray, and they also should meditate, but the manner of doing the latter is left entirely to the individual.

(25 January 1943 to the believers)

“Man has also spiritual powers: imagination, which conceives things; thought, which reflects upon realities; comprehension, which comprehends realities, memory, which retains whatever man imagines, thinks, and comprehends.”

Abdu'l-Baha, The Promulgation of Universal Peace, p. 298)

(Abdu'l-Baha, Baha'i World Faith - Abdu'l-Baha Section, p. 317)
1. Silence

- The sign of the intellect is contemplation, and the sign of contemplation is silence, because it is impossible for a man to do two things at once -- he cannot both speak and meditate.

- The essence of true safety is to observe silence, to look at the end of things and to renounce the world. (Baha'u'llah, Tablets of Baha'u'llah, p. 156)

(‘Abdu'l-Baha: Paris Talks*, Pages: 174-175)

2. Privacy

- It is striking how private and personal the most fundamental spiritual exercises of prayer and meditation are in the Faith.

- Bahá'ís do, of course, have meetings for devotions, as in the Mashriqu'l-Adhkar or at Nineteen Day Feasts, but the daily obligatory prayers are ordained to be said in the privacy of one's chamber, and meditation on the Teachings is, likewise, a private individual activity, not a form of group therapy.

- (Compilations, Lights of Guidance, p. 540)
3. Focus Inward

"Through meditation doors of deeper knowledge and inspiration may be opened. Naturally, if one meditates as a Baha’i he is connected with the Source;... Meditation is very important, and the Guardian sees no reason why the friends should not be taught to meditate, but they should guard against superstitions or foolish ideas creeping into it."

All the outside influences that surround the individual seem to have an intensely distracting effect, and it is a hard job to get the average person to do any deep thinking or even a little meditation on the problems facing him and the world at large

(Shoghi Effendi: Directives of the Guardian, Page: 47)

Love Supplies the Impulse to Meditate

5. Purify the Mind

In that state man abstracts himself: in that state man withdraws himself from all outside objects;

I now assure thee, O servant of God, that if

- thy mind become empty and pure from every mention and thought,
- and thy heart attracted wholly to the Kingdom of God,
- forgetting all else beside God and
- coming in communion with the Spirit of God, then the Holy Spirit will assist thee with a power which will enable thee to penetrate all things, and a dazzling spark which enlightens all sides, a brilliant flame in the zenith of the heavens, will teach thee that which thou dost not know of the facts of the universe and of the divine doctrine.

6. Allah-u-Abha 95 Times

- It would seem that there are ... many believers who draw particular benefit from meditation. The House of Justice suggests that for their private meditations they may wish to use the repetition of the Greatest Name, Allah-u-Abha, ninety-five times a day... (Multiple Authors: Lights of Guidance, Page: 542)

  ...repeat 'Allah-u-Abha' ninety-five times..." Let all experience the spiritual enrichment brought to their souls by this simple act of worshipful meditation.

- (The Universal House of Justice, 1999 Dec 28, Further Application of Devotional Laws)

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
7. ASK QUESTIONS

It is an axiomatic fact that while you meditate you are speaking with your own spirit. In that state of mind you put certain questions to your spirit and the spirit answers: the light breaks forth and the reality is revealed.

(‘Abdu’l-Bahá: Paris Talks*, Pages: 174-175)

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015

8. Our Outer Vision Does Not See

...in that subjective mood he is immersed in the ocean of spiritual life and can unfold the secrets of things-in-themselves. To illustrate this, think of man as endowed with two kinds of sight; when the power of insight is being used the outward power of vision does not see.

O MAN OF TWO VISIONS! Close one eye and open the other. Close one to the world and all that is therein, and open the other to the hallowed beauty of the Beloved.

(Baha’u’llah, The Persian Hidden Words)

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
9. Characterized With Divine Attributes

- Nevertheless some thoughts are useless to man; they are like waves moving in the sea without result. But if the faculty of meditation is bathed in the inner light and characterized with divine attributes, the results will be confirmed.

10. Use the Words of God

- He thinks it would be wiser for the Bahá’ís to use the Meditations given by Bahá’u’lláh, and not any set form of meditation recommended by someone else, but the believers must be left free in these details and allowed to have personal latitude in finding their own level of communion with God.

- With regard to your spiritual experiences, the Guardian has been very interested to share them. He would, however, urge you to always use and read, during your hours of meditation and prayer, the words revealed by Bahá’u’lláh and the Master.
Revealed Word Has Own Power

• Do thou meditate on that which We have revealed unto thee, that thou mayest discover the purpose of God, thy Lord, and the Lord of all worlds. In these words the mysteries of Divine Wisdom have been treasured.

• Of course prayer can be purely spontaneous, but many of the sentences and thoughts combined in Bahá’í writings of a devotional nature are easy to grasp, and the revealed Word is endowed with a power of its own.

(Bahá’u’lláh, Gleanings from the Writings of Bahá’u’lláh, p. 152)

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015

Power of the Word

• Every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God is endowed with such potency as can instil new life into every human frame

• Every single letter proceeding from Our mouth is endowed with such regenerative power as to enable it to bring into existence a new creation

• Nothing short of the power of the Word of God and the breaths of the Holy Spirit can ever succeed.

• The Word of God is the storehouse of all good, all power and all wisdom.

(Compilations, The Compilation of Compilations vol II, p. 265)

"Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating" with Barbara and Radiance Talley 2015
FASTING IS A PERIOD OF SPIRITUAL RECUPERATION

"Keeping the Fast is enjoined upon all Bahá'ís, regardless of nationality; it has a very salutary effect both physically and spiritually, and the friends should realize Bahá'u'lláh never would have instituted it if it were detrimental to the health."

(From a letter written on behalf of the Guardian to an individual believer, May 21, 1946)
'Abdu'l-Bahá said: "There is but one power which heals -- that is God. The state or condition through which the healing takes place is the confidence of the heart. By some this state is reached through pills, powders, and physicians. By others through hygiene, fasting, and prayer. By others through direct perception."

A friend interested in healing quoted the words of Bahá'u'lláh: "If one is sick, let him go to the greatest physician."

"As to your question regarding the Fast: if there is any doubt in the mind of a person as to whether it will really be bad for that person's health to keep it, the best doctor's advice should be obtained.
Fasting is More Than Just Not Eating

But generally speaking most people can keep it, anywhere in the world, with no detriment to their health. It is very good for the health and, once one forms the habit, each year it becomes easier to keep, unless one is rundown. No one is obliged to keep it if it really harms them.

(From a letter written on behalf of the Guardian to an individual believer, April 14, 1947)

Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

(KING JAMES BIBLE, ISAIAH 58:6:11)
On another occasion 'Abdu'l-Bahá said with regard to the same subject, "All that we see around us is the work of mind. It is mind in the herb and in the mineral that acts on the human body, and changes its condition." (Abdu'l-Baha, Abdu'l-Baha in London, p. 95)

When a person becomes a Baha'i, actually what takes place is that the seed of the spirit starts to grow in the human soul. This seed must be watered by the outpourings of the Holy Spirit. These gifts of the Spirit are received through:

1. Prayer,
2. Meditation
3. Study of the Holy Utterances and
4. Service to the Cause of God....

(Shoghi Effendi: The Importance of Deepening, Pages: 231-232)
"It is striking how private and personal the most fundamental spiritual exercises of prayer and meditation are in the Faith."

The daily obligatory prayers are ordained to be said in the privacy of one's chamber, and meditation on the Teachings is, likewise, a private individual activity, not a form of group therapy.

The inspiration received through meditation is of a nature that one cannot measure or determine. God can inspire into our minds things that we had no previous knowledge of, if He desires to do so.

(25 January 1943 to two believers)
One hour's reflection is preferable to seventy years of pious worship" must needs be observed. (Baha'u'llah: The Kitab-i-Iqan, Page: 238)

"Prayer and meditation are very important factors in deepening the spiritual life of the individual, but with them must go also action and example, as these are the tangible results of the former.

Both are essential. (Abdu'l-Baha, Paris Talks, p. 18)
He should then meditate on the import of the Word, and finding its spiritual depths, pray for guidance and assistance. But most important, after prayer is action. After one has prayed and meditated, he must arise, relying fully on the guidance and confirmation of Bahá'u'lláh, to teach His Faith. Perseverance in action is essential...

(Some men and women glory in their exalted thoughts, but if these thoughts never reach the plane of action they remain useless: the power of thought is dependent on its manifestation in deeds.)
The reality of man is his thought, not his material body. The thought force and the animal force are partners. Although man is part of the animal creation, he possesses a power of thought superior to all other created beings. If a man's thought is constantly aspiring towards heavenly subjects then does he become saintly; if on the other hand his thought does not soar, but is directed downwards to centre itself upon the things of this world, he grows more and more material until he arrives at a state little better than that of a mere animal. (Abdu'l-Baha, Paris Talks, p. 17)

QUESTION: Concerning fasting and obligatory prayer by the sick.

ANSWER: In truth, I say that obligatory prayer and fasting occupy an exalted station in the sight of God. It is, however, in a state of health that their virtue can be realized. In time of ill-health it is not permissible to observe these obligations; such hath been the bidding of the Lord, exalted be His glory, at all times. Blessed be such men and women as pay heed, and observe His precepts. All praise be unto God, He who hath sent down the verses and is the Revealer of undoubted proofs! (Baha'u'llah, The Kitab-i-Aqdas, p. 134)
