Summer Scholars Programme
Blueprint Tours, Inc.
Disciplinary Consent Form and Code of Conduct Agreement

In the event that the faculty and/or the program manager determine that your son/daughter's words or actions are disruptive, or your son/daughter has exhibited behavior that may lead him/her to be a danger to himself/herself or others, your son/daughter may be required to return home before the completion of the program.

If a decision is made by the faculty and/or the program manager to send your son/daughter home before the completion of the trip, you agree, as the legal guardian, to pay for all expenses associated with such discipline. Specifically, you agree to purchase a one-way ticket from the closest airport to your home airport for your son/daughter. You also agree that either you or your designee (i.e. a relative, caregiver, etc) will meet the son/daughter at the airport closest to where the child is currently traveling on the tour and then escort your son/daughter home. The airfares for such a disciplinary event and all associated costs (extra hotel rooms, meals) will be at your expense and paid by you. No advance will be provided by Blueprint Tours, Inc. to cover such costs.

Your son/daughter's conduct in and out of school prior to the departure of the program is also important. Regardless of the fact that this is not a school sponsored trip, any student may be dropped from the program at the discretion of the faculty committee if that student is disciplined by the school for behavior or is involved in any illegal activity, including but not limited to arrest, suspension, expulsion or a lesser form of school discipline. If such an event occurs, the cancellation policy on the back of the Blueprint Tours' brochure will govern the amount of money the student is entitled to, if any, as a refund. This may result in a forfeiture of the full value paid for the program.

I have read the above agreement and agree to comply with the terms and conditions if my son/daughter is asked to leave a program early due to disciplinary problems or forfeits his/her opportunity to participate in the program due to disciplinary issues prior to departure.
