RESTAURANT

OUR STORY

Welcome to the Peppermill. Six generations of the Joseph family have called the Nebraska Sand Hills home. Three of us were misguided enough to enter the restaurant business. Much has changed since 1986, but our commitment to great Nebraska beef has not. Bill, the grocer and herdsman, Roger, the cattle feeder and owner of one of the best local Angus ranches, and now Robert, who loved chasing a cow but often fell from his horse, have all helped build the foundation for one of the state's very best diners. Order a Nebraska beef steak with confidence here friends, and keep it as close to medium rare as your soul will allow. Ahlan! Robert, Lacey, Cruz & Leni Jo Joseph

PEPPERMILL Steaks

“Aging steak properly and not cutting your selection until it is ordered is a bit of an obsession. Everything below is best around medium rare so if you venture beyond the medium go out into that cold darkness by yourself. Kidding of course. If you like a well done steak we humbly suggest the Joseph Grilled Prime Rib. Served with side & garden salad”
