

Thank you to these families, groups, and individuals who donated $10,000 or more. Each of the following Oflag 64 POWs will have a section of the exhibit dedicated in their honor which will be publicly announced at the museum opening.

In honor of Seymour R. Bolten

Joshua and Ann Bolten
Randall Bolten and Peyton Bruns
Jim and Susanna Bolten Connaughton

In honor of 1st LT James T. Godfrey, MD

Brant Hatton Godfrey and Kay Godfrey Cruise

In honor of 2nd LT Howard Randolph “Boomer” Holder

Marjory Holder

In honor of 2nd LT H. Randolph “Boomer” Holder

The Holder Family Foundation

In honor of LTC Nathaniel “Nat” Hoskot

Tom and Anne Hoskot Kreutzer

In honor of 1st LT Charles L. Jones

Curtis Aldrich
Eloise Aldrich
Todd Aldrich
Ryan Brackey
Carrie Buelow
Ann Gustafson
Janis Hendrickson
Julie Horning
Valerie Jepsen
Carol Jones
Warren Jones
Lavonne Sporney

In honor of 1st LT Francis Eugene Liggett

Pamela Bailey
Margaret Baxter
Roberto De Leon

Tamara Erickson
Jill and Ken Franzel
Dale Green
Freeman Hall
Marcia and Ralph Hallett
Calvin Iida
Elizabeth Kelley
Ray Liggett and Kate Conyers
Joseph and Marie Liggett
Alicia Maria
Holly McGee
Roger and Marianne Liggett Merriam
Janet and Ed Sands
Fran Trimble
Michael Trimble

In honor of LTC Clarence R. Meltesen

Anne Meltesen Trujillo

In honor of 2nd LT Wilbur Sharpe JR

Glenn and Cynthia Sharpe Burgess

In honor of CPT Donald B. Stewart and LTC John Van Vliet JR

In memory of Monica Stewart Bishara
Barney and Kathy Herrera
Barbara Stewart
Dave Stewart
Robert D Stewart
LTC John H. Van Vliet III, U.S. Army (Ret)

In honor of LTC John K. Waters

George Patton Waters

Thank you to these individual donors who helped to boost the Capital Campaign past its goal:

Anonymous X 2
Francesca and Brad Anderson
Nancy and Tom Cobb
Stephanie Siegel
Robert Sutton
Carl and Patricia Thompson
John Warthen